WASHINGTON, D. C., July 11.—(By the Associated Press)—The governor of Sao Paulo and other state officials have withdrawn from the capital, which is finally in control of the revolutionists, a dispatch to the State Department from Consul Heeber to in Sao Paulo, declared.

The dispatch was described as the first official information from the center of the revolt to reach this government. It gave no further details except that protection of life and property had been promised.

The movement is said to be headed by the famous Rio Grande leader, Colonel Joao Francisco, who, for some years has been commander of a brigade of state troops stationed in Sao Paulo. The advices say the rebels succeeded in deposing the Sao Paulo state government which has been rplaced by a military junta under General Rondon and Major Klinger, who revolted with the artillery regiment under his command.

The railroad from Santos to Sao Paulo is not operating and the telegraphic censorship is very severe.

BUENOS AIRES, July 11.—(By the Associated Press)—The Brazilian rebels control Sao Paulo, the state government has been deposed and the revolutionary Junta headed by General

Stung! Wasp Is Right On Trail Of Corn Borer

CLEVELAND, O., July 11.—(By the Associated Press)—Hope that the corn borer which has ravaged northern Ohio, for several years, will be exterminated by exeristes roberator, a wasp discovered in France, was expressed in agricultural circles here today, when it was announced that 7,000 had been released in Lake, Huron and Lorain counties and its young are battling the European pest.

Although the first batch of the exeristes was released several weeks ago, no announcement was made, the department of agriculture not wishing to lead farmers to relax their precautions. Many more thousands will be released in August, it was stated today.

The damage of the corn borer, first brought into Ohio by a storm which blew it across Lake Erie three years ago, amounts to thousands of dollars. So far he has domiciled only in the northern counties, through precautions of the farmers, state and national entomologists and farm bureau officials.

At first there seemed to be no hope of overcoming the enemy, but when Secretary of Agriculture Henry C. Wallace, came to Cleveland a year ago, it was recalled today, he was optimistic that the exeristes roberator might turn the trick.

Exeristes was found in France by scouts of the department of agriculture and brought to Massachusetts. It was doubtful for a long time whether he could survive an American winter, but according to information here yesterday, entomologists have found a few in Massachusetts who are descending from the original settlers. The question is now whether they can stand it in Ohio. If the winters here are too severe, all hope may be lost.

Countess Loses Fight; American Hanged

MONTREAL, July 11. — Walter Muier, of New York, was hanged at Valley Field, Quebec, early for the murder of Henri Laviolette last September.

Muier shot Lavillette after a quarrel in a Valley Field bar room. Lavolette, according to court testimony, had struck Muier's crony, a crippled man named Joseph Plant, during an argument over the merits of a hunting dog.

Not until the noose was slipped was it certain that the sentence would be placed into effect, so unremitting had been the efforts of the Countess of Richelieu, Mrs. Walter Muier, the boy's mother, and scores of other persons to obtain a new trial.

Muier claimed that when he drew his pistol during the quarrel with Laviolette in the bar room he only meant to scare the man. He fired two bullets into the floor, one of them glancing and striking Laviolette in the breast.

GOODBYE MOTHER

Before he walked to the gallows, Muier wrote the following letter to his mother:

"To My Heartbroken Mother,

My Poor Mother:

"How you must be suffering since my death; but you must be brave and remember I died a good Christian and in a state of grace. Always think of me, as I will be watching and praying over you until you join me in heaven. It was the will of God that I should leave this earth at this time. I am dying a happy death. I love you with all my heart, and will pray to God always for you. Good-bye, mother dear. May God bless you."

A jury found Muier guilty and he was sentenced to hang last April. A reprieve was granted to permit of an appeal. The appeal was dismissed.

It was then that Countess Richelieu, formerly Miss Elinor Douglas Wise, of Baltimore, opened her long, unavailing struggle to free the youth. She cancelled all social engagements and enlisted in her fight men and women of prominence in Canada. In New York a committee under Miss Juliet Thompson have worked for Muier night and day for the past two months. These efforts ramified to Washington where through Howard C. Dickinson, nephew of the secretary of state, the department of state sent a plea for executive clemency to the British embassy. The consul at Ottawa was further requested to reinforce this plea by personal representations. These were unavailing.

Workers on behalf of Muier based their appeal on his youth—he is 21 years old—and the lack of criminal intent. Although sympathy was abundant among Canadian officials, the law would permit of but one interpretation in their eyes.

M. E. Church Is Blown Up By Bootleggers

JOLIET, ILLS., July 1.—(By the Associated Press)—The Ottawa Street Methodist Church, of which the Rev. Henry E. Rompel, dry raid leader, is pastor, was damaged badly by a dynamite explosion early today. Police attributed the bombing to bootleggers.

The entire rear end of the church was blown out and many plate glass windows in the business district in which the church is located, were shattered.

The Rev. Mr. Rompel's raiding activities began last December when he piloted twenty Chicago prohibition agents through the Joliet saloons, where large quantities of liquor were seized and the proprietors arrested.

The pastor and his wife sailed two weeks ago on an European tour. No one was injured in the explosion.

Stanley Field, Millionaire, Re-Weds Wife

CHICAGO, July 11.—(By the United Press)—Stanley Field, millionaire nephew of the late Marshall Field, Chicago department store king, and his wife, Mrs. Carroll Brown Field, formerly of Baltimore, today refloated their ship on the matrimonial waters.

The sailing this time will be smooth, they agreed.

The Field's were re-married Thursday afternoon in the office of Stanley's attorney.

Divorced two years ago when Stanley's wife refused to live with him, they were drawn together it is believed, by the impending marriage of their daughter, Daphne, to Russell P. Kelly. Daphne, it was said by friends of the family, has been attempting to bring her parents together before her own marriage.

Area Around Black Sea Scene Of Disorder; Officials Killed; Troops Shoot Many Insurgents

BY ANTHONY PAPAYANNAKIS

(United Press Staff Correspondent.)

ATHENS, July 11.—Martial law has been declared throughout the Burgas district of Bulgaria following a revolutionary uprising in which the rebels killed the Prefect and other officials and many of their number were shot down in clashes with government troops.

Sofia dispatches state that sporadic uprisings on the part of Agrarians started last week and gradually took the form of a revolution throughout the district along the Black Sea.

Troops loyal to the present regime made more than 700 arrests at Varna and elsewhere.

Much of the fighting between the Agrarians, Communists, Republicans and government forces appears to have been of a rough and tumble variety, but reports of numerous casualties indicate the troops were forced to use their arms.

Davis Will Appeal To Golfers and Women

NEW YORK, July 11.—(By the Associated Press)—If the Democratic nominee is elected, there will be not her golfer in the White House. Wilson and Harding played, but Coolidge does not.

Thousands of duffers won't envy John W. Davis' score. He's happy when he breaks a hundred on the Pip ing Rock course near Locust Valley.

Beau Brummel Walter Hagen has nothing on Mr. Davis when it comes to perfection on the links however. Those who have seen Mr. Davis in knickers recall the seconding speech of Mrs. Izetta Jewell Brown to the Democratic convention in which she pointed out he was a handsome man, and that it was necessary to consider the women's vote.

"Democratic Hopes Lie In Ohio, West Virginia, Indiana, South And Western States"---Lawrence

(BY DAVID LAWRENCE)

Copyright, 1924

NEW YORK, July 11.—John W. Davis, of West Virginia, and Charles W. Bryan, of Nebraska, may be called a surprise ticket because it came after an unprecedented deadlock, but it is nevertheless the logic of American politics.

Without organization and management the two men who were selected to lead the Democratic party win their honors. The delegates unbossed and uninfluenced took four ballots after they had been released from the shackles of pledges and instructions and almost unanimously came to their decision.

But the reputation of both men—their achievements in the past, their integrity and their principles, had long been known to the delegates. John Davis was second choice in the minds of most of the men who came here pledged to McAdoo and a great many of those who supported Smith.

In line with the formula set forth in these dispatches in the early days of the convention when A. Mitchell Palmer's theory about second choices was explained, the nomination went this year as it did in 1920 and in 1912 to the men with the greatest second-choice strength before the convention assembled.

Mr. Davis was about as widely advertised a personality as any before the convention. Governor Bryan, of Nebraska, had made a profound impression in the west as a Progressive.

The leaders knew that Mr. Bryan had carried Nebraska for the Democrats in the las election by 50,000 and that this year he had been nominated for Governor in the primaries not only by the Democratic party, but by the Farmer-Labor party. He must now withdraw from the gubernatorial race, but will serve out his term as governor to the first of the year.

What the west has sought from both parties has been recognition. The Bryan nomination may not impress the east, but it is an action which western Democrats understand. The failure of the Republicans to select Kenyon, of Iowa, for vice president gave the Democrats their chance to name Governor Bryan.

CLEVELAND, O., July 11.—(By the United Press)—Receivership for the Cleveland Discount Company may be lifted September 1, as a result of the receivers' report and recommendations for reorganization, which have been submitted to Judge Powell in common Pleas court.

Reorganization plans also must have the approval of the stockholders.

The company showed a net profit of more than seven hundred thousand dollars for the first year of operation under receivership, with a reduction in operating expense from more than two million dollors under the administration of Josiah Kirby to less than two hundred thousand dollars since the receivers took charge a year ago last February.

G. O. P. Leaders Maintain Silence As To Their Columbus Meeting

COLUMBUS, O., July 11— (By The Associated Press)—A conspiracy of silence has been thrown about the meeting here late yesterday of big city leaders of the Republican party in Ohio.

The conference went into executive session immediately and no word of what they did was allowed to escape the confines of their hotel room.

If they intend to endorse a candidate for governor or if they actually decided among themselves to throw their support to one of the candidates for the nomination, it was not revealed by the leaders themselves.

Newspapermen waiting outside the hotel conference room, however, heard more comment among the leaders after the meeting broke up which was favorable to Harry L. Davis of Cleveland, than to any other candidate for the nomination.

In attendance at the conference were:

Maurice Maschke, Cleveland; Rud Hynicka, Cincinnati; Dan Brower, Dayton; Walter Brown, Toledo, and Robert Wolfe, Columbus.

Sale of Savings Certificates and Stamps Stopped By Treasury

WASHINGTON, July 11—The treasury today ordered suspended all sales of treasury savings certificates and stamps effective July 15.

Acting Secretary Winston said the present money market did not warrant the treasury paying 4 1-2 per cent interest on the savings securities when funds may be obtained at much lower interest.

Further sale of the certificates, will be held in abeyance until conditions have changed. Call money was quoted at two per cent in the New York market yesterday and it was recalled at the treasury that the last issue of treasury certificates of indebtedness was floated at a rate of 2 3-4 per cent. The savings certificates bear 4 1-2 per cent, compounded semi-annually over a period of five years.

More than $400,000,000 in treasury certificates now are outstanding. The first sales, in the form of war savings stamps, were made in 1918 but those have been retired and each subsequent year has seen a new issue. Almost $100,000,000 of the issue of 1924 have been sold.

Only Immigration Law Change Will Avert Trouble With Japan

WASHINGTON, D. C., July 11.—(By the United Press)—Leaving Washington today, Masano Hanihara, retiring Japanese ambassador here, returns to his country convinced that a more satisfactory disposition of the Japanese immigration question must be arranged if trouble is to be averted between the two countries.

Hanihara is not making any statement for publication, but the seriousness with which the Japanese people regard the new American exclusion law is shown by the fact that the ambassador is understood to believe that although the outward anti-American demonstrations in his country soon will end, such a feeling on the part of the Japanese will continue under the surface.

Hanihara leaves Washinkgton late today. He goes direct to San Francisco, where he will sail for Japan on board the Corea July 18. Officially it is said that Hanihara has not yet resigned as ambassador, returning to Japan on leave. However, the understanding here is that he probably will not return to Washington as ambassador.

The future course of Japan in dealing with the immigration question is expected to be decided after conferences between Hanihara and the Tokio government. It is believed doubtful that any further important step will be taken by Japan before the elections in this country, but there is every indication that Japan does not regard the question as a closed incident.

The American government does regard the question as closed, showing what opposite attitudes are now maintained by the two countries on this one disturbing factor between the two nations.

BRYAN COMES OUT FOR DAVIS

WASHINGTON, D. C. July 11—B(y the United Press)—William Jennings Bryan today branded the Democratic presidential nominee, John W. Davis, as a "Progressive at heart" whose previous "professional connections instead of being a handicap will be turned into an advantage."

Bryan said he had given Davis his support because he had been convinced that "his endorsement of our platform is thorough and earnest."

He told friends here a personal conference with Davis had won him over to a confidence in Davis' Progressiveness and that he was sure Davis in his campaign speeches will convince the voters that he is at heart a Progressive in spite of his professional connections."

"If he can do it these connections instead of being a handicap to him, will be turned into an advantage," declared Bryan, "for the reason that they will show the strength of his character—A man who can maintain his integrity and his sympathy with the people in spite of such professional associations and as such he will appeal to the people."

Bryan said he would have supported the ticket any way, but that he was greatly pleased to have been convinced of Davis' Progressive views.

At the regular monthly meeting of the Woman's Missionary Association held at the Voelker summer home near Friendship, Rev. and Mrs. L. B. Mignery, representatives of the First United Brethren congregation at Sierre Leone, West Africa, were the chief speakers.

Between fifty and sixty members and friends of the organization participated in the occasion, which was in the form of a picnic meeting. Mrs. Mignery spoke on the Womanhood of Africa, suggesting many interesting bits of information ordinarily omitted in reports of returned missionaries.

Mr. and Mrs. Mignery and little daughter, Eleanore Mignonne are guests at the parsonage for the remainder of the week and will participate in all the services held at the church next Sunday. On Sunday evening Mr. and Mrs. Mignerey will display a large number of African curios, which will be used to objectify and illustrate their interesting messages. Members and friends of the church and the public in general are urged to hear these splendid young missionaries at one of the Sunday services at the church on Seventh and Gay.

RED BLUFF, CALIF., July 11—(U. P.)—Fred Johnson and Earl Williams, both recent arrivals in California from Omaha, Nebr., were saved from possible lynching last night when the sheriff spirited them away to the Oroville, Calif., jail.

They had been arrested after an all day chase which started when they are alleged to have robbed the banks of Tehama in Red Bluff yesterday morning and ended an hour after they were alleged to have shot to death Sam Hermanson, forest ranger.

Brought to Red Bluff by a posse during the early evening a crowd gathered and made violent threats. While officers argued with the gathering, the sheriff slipped away with the two men, taking them to Oroville.

League Leader Is To Appeal His Case

NEW YORK, July 11.—(By the Associated Press)—The case of William H. Anderson, former state superintendent of the Anti-Saloon League, who is serving a term in Sing Sing prison for forgery, will be taken to the court of appeals soon, it was announced today by former Governor Charles S. Whitman, Anderson's counsel.

Mr. Whitman said he desired to overcome the erroneous report that all hopes of Anderson's vindication were lost when the appellate division of the supreme court recently affirmed his conviction.

The argument on the appeal will be heard early in the fall, Mr. Whitman said. Anderson, who received a one to two year term, will be eligible for release on December 24.

Employment In Ohio Showing Decided Drop

COLUMBUS, O., July 11.—(By the Associated Press)—Employment conditions were worse in Ohio during the year ending June 30, 1924, than during the year previous, according to the annual report of the division of labor statistics made today to Herman R. Witter, director of industrial relations.

Applications for work were more numerous at state city free employment bureaus and placements were fewer, the report shows.

Total registrations for jobs during the year reached 584,370 as compared with 467,631 the previous year. Placements for the year totalled 220,987 as compared with 257,595 for the year ending June 30, 1922.

The greatest difficulty in finding employment was experienced in Cleveland, where 12,751 men and 60,135 women sought work. Employment was found for only one in every five men and one in every two women.

The Akron office reported 62,200 men and 17,267 women seeking employmen with jobs for only 15,332 men and 7,995 women. Dayton had 56,252 men and 14,568 women applicants and found places for 15,279 men and 6,124 women. In Toledo, 44,006 men and 8,236 women sought employment. Places were found for 19,919 men and 4,456 women. Male applicants at Cincinnati totalled 21,320 and women applicants were 23,516. Places were found for 10,634 men and 9,988 women. Youngstown reported 16,546 men and 18,764 women seeking work and places for 7,230 men and 8,067 women. In Columbus places were found for 18,218 of the 55,047 male and for 18,865 of the 33,013 female applicants.

Basal Ganglia and Adrenal Cortex, Caused Chicago Youths to Kill Boy

CHICAGO, ILL., July 11.—United Press.)—Doctors and attorneys for the millionaire parents of Nathan Leopold, Jr., and Richard Loeb, in the attempt to save their sons from hanging for the murder of 14-year-old Robert Franks, today started translating medical findings into language which will be understood by a jury.

One of the youthful murderers is suffering from infected "basal ganglia" and the other has a diseased "adrenal cortex," according to the doctors' findings. These terms and hundreds of others must be so explained that a jury will understand that Leopold and Loeb were not responsible when they killed the Franks boy, according to Clarence Darrow, chief defense counsel.

Out of the large number of doctors who have examined the two confessed murderers no more than five or six will be placed on the witness stand, Darrow indicated. These will be selected for their eminence in the profession in order to "carry more weight."

Two Bullet Holes Found In Body of Lawrence Co. Man; Officials Seek the Gun User

IRONTON, O., July 11—All doubt that Cassius M. Hather, whose lifeless body was found Wednesday within half a mile of his home on Little Ice Creek with a bullet wound through his head, had been murdered, was removed Thursday, when Coroner Jas. Cannon and Undertaker E. Schneidder in a more extended examination of the body discovered a second bullet wound.

In the first wound discovered the bullet had entered the left cheek and came out below the ear. The bullet which caused the second wound, found yesterday, entered the back and was located just beneath the skin on the breast. It was extracted and proved to be of 32 calibre.

When the body was first found, with only one bullet wound, it was thought that the dead man might have been slain by a stray bullet but the finding of the second wound yesterday, in the opinion of authorities, established a plain case of murder.

Earlier reports that no money was found on the body were also disproved Thursday when the cororner found $11.10 in the hip pocket of the dead man's trousers, indicating that robbery was not the motive for the killing.

County authorities were still without a clue in the case at the end of the second day.

Boosters To Invade Raceland Next Thursday; 'Twill Be Portsmouth Day; Over 600 Expected to Make Trip

Portsmouth Boosters will invade Raceland for their four next Thursday, carrying to the newly opened track the slogan of "Portsmouth, a good town."

The Boosters will take a band with them and plan to have at least 600 people in the party. The local Booster committee has received word from J. O. Keene, manager of Raceland that Thursday will be "Portsmouth Day" and every courtesy and attention will be shown the visitors from the Peerless City.

Detailed plans for the trip will be worked out the first of the week by the committee in charge.

Organization of the new national committee probably will not formally take place until after the notification ceremony at which Mr. Davis will make his first public address on the issues of the election. But the nominee hopes to complete the details of organization of the party's council within the next few days, since the protracted session of the convention has delayed the opening of the campaign beyond the customary time. He intends to get as early a start as possible, and if, as he expects, the choice of a chairman is made before the end of next week, Mr. Davis will then take a vacation of about a fortnight in New England.

At the Davis home, situated on a six acre tract on a hill above Long Island Sound, were Mrs. Davis, Mrs. Phil Watson, of Indianapolis, Mrs. Davis' sister and the nominee. Here Mr. Davis expects to spend a quiet week-end after today's conferences, getting in a round or two of golf, as is his custom.

From Mr. Davis' only daughter, Mrs. William H. Adams, wife of the Copenhagen manager, of the United States Rubber Company, came the following cablegram today:

"Hearty congratulations! No go to it."

Bryan Is Resting

"I can say nothing definite on my plans until after my arrival at Lincoln and until I have had opportunity to get my work there in shape," Governor Bryan said.

"All my plans are contingent on conditions in Nebraska and my fight against the oil truse there."

Mr. Bryan was accompanied by W. H. Thompson, national committeeman from Nebraska. The nominee said he planned to go to Washington probably tomorrow and that he would leave for Lincoln early next week.

Sao Paulo

Rondon has formed a temporary government, according to reports from reliable sources received by the Montevideo correspondent of LaNacion.

The advices confirm previous reports of an uprising in the state of Parana and declare rebel forces from that state are marching to the aid of the insurrectionary movement.

RIO DE JANEIRO, July 11.—(By the United Press)—"The government has complete control of the situation," a brief communique on the revolt in Sao Paulo said tonight.

It was indicated however, that the remaining rebel strongholds have not yet been reduced although they are surrounded by loyal forces.

A number of prisoners arrived here today from Santos.

Apparently the rebels are in two groups, in the Luz Military Barracks, near the big Luz Railway station and the Santa Anna Barracks, about five miles away.

A rigid censorship continues and any estimate of the total dead and wounded is impossible. It is probable figures never will be given out.

Late official communications confirm reports that the revolt was not purely military, but had a political aspect. The names of the political leaders involved however, are not mentioned in official communiques.

Government forces are in complete control of Santos and apparently there hmas not been any fighting there at any time.

Government forces have been using Santos as a base of operations ever since the fighting started and is transferring all prisoners to that city, from which they are brought to Rio De Janeiro on naval vessels.

The senate and the chamber of deputies today adopted resolutions declaring their complete support of the federal government, President Barnades and the Sao Paulo state government.

The Noon Communique today said:

"Military operations against the Sao Paulo rebels are following their course. Progress of the loyal troops is satisfactory while the situation of the rebels becomes more difficult hourly.

"The number of desertions from the rebel camp is increasing.

"Governor DeCampos continues in Sao Paulo and his loyal state troops are co-operating with the fedelal units."

The Brazilian warship Almarinte Barrosa, which has been at Buenos Aires with official representatives to the Argentine independence celebrations, departed hastily last night following radio orders from Rio De Janeiro. It is presumed the vessel will join the Brazilian naval units in Santos, operating against the Sao Paulo rebels.

Democratic

There is no doubt that the final decision to name the Nebraska governor was influenced by the knowledge that the nomination of Davis would be criticized as a Wall street appointment for he has been counsel for J. P. Morgan & Co., and the Standard Oil Company. It is true he has been counsel also for Eugene V. Debs, Mother Jones and the Plate Glass Blowers' Union, and he has had every conceivable type of client. Perhaps the situation is best expressed by what William Jennings Bryan said to the writer today:

"Of course I shall support the ticket. You will observe that in everything that I wrote or said before this convention made its nominations, I was careful to speak of the high regard which I personally have had for Mr. Davis and for his integrity. I simply said that his connections raised a presumption of corporate influence. But I believe every man is entitled to a square deal. And what Mr. Davis has said in his first statement, namely, 'there can be no compromise with reaction,' indicates what his views will be. Also he has accepted the most progressive platform any political party ever presented to the nation."

Mr. Bryan said he would campaign for the ticket. It is no secret that he was flattered by the selection of his brother, for John W. Davis himself said he wanted a western Progressive and a dry to be his running mate and indicated his desire to have Governor Bryan named. Actions like these were convincing of a willingness to raise the Progressive standard. Although eastern Democrats looked askance they recognized that the battle of 1924 will not be fought in New York and New England, but in the middle west and west.

The Democratic hopes lie in carrying West Virginia, Ohio, Indiana and western states plus the solid south. Al Smith may run again for Governor of New York and will wholeheartedly support the national ticket. Former Governor Cox, of Ohio, will be an aggressive aid to the Davis-Bryan combination in the middle west. He counseled the party leaders in the last two days of the convention to agree on Davis.

Altogether the reaction of the delegates to the ticket today was in surprising contrast to their depression of several days ago. Many concede that Coolidge is strong in the east and look toward the west for a decision. But the campaign will turn largely on the issues as unfolded by Mr. Davis, who will take the offensive. President Coolidge will stay at the White House most of the time and Senator LaFollette is too old to wage an active campaign. Mr. Davis will have an opportunity to travel extensively and speak by radio everywhere. He likes campaigning, is a forceful speaker and has a magnetic personality. He is not the kind who is given to demogogery and the country can expect an intelligent campaign from him.

Newspapers comment even from the Republican press hereabouts gives Davis credit for a courageous record in public service and for genuine ability. But it isn't likely to be a campaign of personalities. The Democrats themselves concede that President Coolidge is highly respected and that Senator LaFollette is credited by the west as being a sincere advocate of radicalism. The issues are more likely to be national problems, the record of the Republican Congress, the capacity of the Republican party to rule based on the four years gone by and the capacity of the Democrats to govern based on the eight years they were in power. The struggles of members of the House and Senate for re-election, as well as the state contests, will furnish local issues which here and there will influence the fate of the national tickets of all parties.

The real fighting ground will be the west. Governor Bryan said today he had not sought the vice presidential nomination because he wanted to finish his work as governor. He has been fighting the oil monopolies and to force a reduction in the price of gasoline. Last winter he went into the coal business for the state of Nebraska and forced down the price of coal. He is somewhat different from his brother in that he has had more administrative experience, but his strength just the same in the west will be largely his reputation for rugged honesty and sincerity—a circumstance that has made the name of Bryan a vote-getter beyond the Mississippi for many years.

Battle

M. Baruch, a warm McAdoo supporter in the convention fight, of Miss Margaret Wilson, Mr. McAdoo's sister-in-law, and other active McAdoo partisans. Miss Wilson was presented to Mr. Davis yesterday by Mrs. J. Borden Harriman, a McAdoo supporter, and gave her congratulations in person.

New York papers are frankly skeptical of the attitude toward the national ticket of Mayor Hylan, who has hal the constant support of Mr. Hearst, and some even suggest that a Smith-Hylan battle for control of Tammany looms.

Some political circles expect that New York will be the center of the Davis campaign. With 268 electoral votes necessary for success and with Davis reasonably assured of 147 from the solid south plus Maryland and Kentucky, according to these opinions the 45 of the empire state will be vital, and next to New York much attention must be devoted to Ohio, Illinois and Indiana.

The fact that Mr. Davis has indicated that shortly he will select a temporary residence making him accessible is taken to corroborate the opinion that New York state will be the main battle grounds.

There is much speculation as to the future political career of Governor Smith who endorsed the national ticket in a speech before the convention. Asked whether he would run for governor again in the fall, he expressed a preference to return to private business. There are suggestions that he has senatorial ambitions for 1926.

Davis Plans Early Start

NEW YORK, July 11.—(By the Associated Press)—After a good night's rest at his country home, the first since the Democratic convention opened, John W. Davis today arose at 8:00 o'clock and left at 9:30 o'clock by motor from Locust Valley to New York to tackle at once the problem of organization of the national committee and selection of a chairman to take charge of his campaign for the presidency.

On arriving at the home of Frank L. Polk, former under secretary of state, Mr. Davis had a long talk with Cordell Hull, the present chairman of the Democratic National Committee and other party leaders.

Farm Bloc Making Their Plans

ST. PAUL, MINN., July 11.—(By the United Press)—What the next farm bloc in congress will fight for, will be largely decided here today.

A national conference of farm organizations met to start a campaign for agricultural legislation such as was embodied in the McNary-Haugen measure, defeated by the last congress.

The two day conference hopes to evolve:

1. A nation-wide agricultural legislation.
2. A program of legislation.
3. Means of supporting candidates for congress who are favorable to the program and defeating those unfavorable.

Sensational Sale Of New Antiseptic Breaking Record

A Discovery of Vast Benefit to Humanity

Thousands Using It Give It Unstinted Praise

Another Public Letter to Fisher and Streich Who Have Already Sold Hundreds of Bottles

Now that you have had such a wonderful sale of Kojene these last few weeks why not again tell your friends and customers what a wonderful discovery it is?

By so doing you can help many ailing ones and prevent hundreds of others from becoming ill.

Science continues to progress and now it has given us Kojene, the new and only antiseptic known that is neither poisonous, alcoholic, irritant or caustic.

And this non-poisonous antiseptic, so harmless that you can drink it, is four times as powerful as Carbolic Acid.

Yes, and more powerful than Bichloride of Mercury.

Let's go a little further with this new antiseptic that physicians, surgeons and dentists are talking about.

Please tell your customers that it is seventy-five times more powerful as a destroyer of germs than most of the popular flavored antiseptics and mouth washes now in use.

Go further and tell them that it is so powerful that one single teaspoonful will make a whole tumblerful of the most effective and pleasant mouth wash money can buy.

A sixty cent bottle will make one-half gallon—Yes! one-half gallon of a better mouth wash than the high priced, ready to use kind.

And while you are talking about the world's most wonderful antiseptic—Kojene—tell them about a few of the many things it has the power to relieve.

Sore throat and Tonsilitis will disappear overnight. In a week chronic nasal Catarrh will be a thing of the past. Old sores, ulcers, boils, carbuncle and blemished skin will clear up like magic.

Eczema and that itching skin that drives one almost mad—two days treatment is enough.

And that's all—except that women who believe in cleanliness will be glad to know that Kojene will do anything that any other antiseptic will do and do it better.

And it is not poisonous.

Another thing—Kojene has only the most healthful effect on delicate membranes which cannot be said of harsh, poisonous germ killing agents.

A six ounce bottle for 60 cents—and we almost forgot to say that you can give any purchaser the sixty cents back if he or she is not delighted with Kojene.—advertisement.

"Farmer-Labor Masses Betrayed By Endorsement of La Follette"

CHICAGO, July 11.—(By the Associated Press)—The candidacy of William Z. Foster and Benjamin Gitlow, of New York, nominated respectively for president and vice president by the Workers' Party of America, has been endorsed by the Farmer-Labor party, which will not support Senator Robert M. LaFollette endorsed for president last week at the conference of Progressive Political Action.

Announcement of the party's action was made by the executive committee which consented to the withdrawal of Duncan McDonald, of Illinois, and William Bouck, Washington, recently named at the Farmer-Labor party convention at St. Paul.

Endorsement of LaFollette by the Cleveland conference "betrayed the Farmer-Labor masses into the hands of merchants, manufacturers, bankers and rich farmers and thus destroyed the only chance for a united front campaign in the coming presidential election," the national executive committee of the Farmer-Labor party said in a statement.

Nominations of Foster and Gitlow were made at a meeting of the national conference of the Workers' party, followed by a mass meeting of members of the Workers' party last night.

Foster and Gitlow have been prominent in Communistic activities.

President Back At White House After the Burial of Younger Son

WASHINGTON, D. C., July 11.—(By the Associated Press)—The special train bearing the family of President Coolidge and the party of government officials and friends who accompanied them to Plymouth, Vermont where Calvin Coolidge, Jr. was buried yesterday, arrived in Washington shortly after 7 a. m. today.

John Coolidge, father of the president, came with the family. It is his first visit to the Capital since he administered the oath of office to the president in the Plymouth home about a year ago. Mr. and Mrs. Frank W. Stearns, of Boston, who were with the family during the illness of Calvin, returned with them to the White House also.

Both the President and Mrs. Coolidge appeared greatly rested today but the effect of the long trip to Plymouth with services both there and at Northampton yesterday naturally will be felt for a few days.

Mr. Coolidge has not given thought to plans for the immediate future so far as his intimate friends know. It is their opinion however, that with his father here, he will prefer to keep to the White House most of the summer.

Soon after breakfast the president went to his office to go over accumulated routine business and later the regular cabinet meeting was held.

PLYMOUTH, Vt., July 11.—(By the A. P.)—Calvin Coolidge Jr., 16-year-old son of the President was buried here late Thursday in the family lot of the Plymouth cemetery.

Mr. and Mrs. Coolidge and their son, John, walked sadly away from the grave with heads slightly bowed as a marine bugler sounded "taps."

A driving rain which overtook the presidential train on the way from Northampton, Mass., where funeral services were held, vanished before Ludlow was reached. The funeral procession of automobiles, more than a mile in length, wound its way under a blue sky between the tall green mountains to the cemetery on the slope of the hill.

Buried in Family Lot

There the President and Mrs. Coolidge left their son near the President's birthplace, in the family lot, close by the resting place of Mr. Coolidge's mother.

The grave, under the shade of spruce and sugar maple trees, is little distant from the farm of John Coolidge, father of the President, where young Calvin had spent many summers.

The funeral party drove directly to the cemetery on the edge of Plymouth from Ludlow, where the special train had carried them from Washington and Northampton.

It was necessary for all to walk up the sloping hillside from near the road to the burial place. When they had gathered there the casket, in the hands of the marines from the presidential yacht Mayflower, was lowered. A mixed quartet sang "My Faith Looks Up To Thee."

Pastor Offers Prayer

The Rev. Kenneth B. Welles, pastor of Edwards Congregational church, Northampton, who had taken Calvin into the church, read a few lines of scripture and offered a brief prayer. Again the quartet sang "Saviour Like A Shepherd Lead Us," the Rev. Jason Noble Pierce, pastor of the President's church in Washington, recited the verses, "He Leadeth Me" and pronounced the commitment. The strains of "Mercersburg hymn," the song of the school attended last year by the boy, were sung and the Rev. Mr. Pierce gave the benediction.

Then came "taps" from the cornet of the marine bugler who had sounded the same notes at the conclusion of the interment of President Harding, the last rites for President Wilson and at the services for America's Unknown Soldier.

New Probate Judge On Deck in Jackson

JACKSON, O., July 11.—Ex-Mayor John Dauber is now duly installed in the office of Probate Judge made vacant by the recent resignation of Judge Reed M. Powell. He received his commission from Governor Donahey Thursday and filed his bond at once, giving him right to take possession of the office.

Judge Dauber is the only candidate for the office of Probate Judge on the Democratic ticket. Mr. Powell was to have been a candidate but his withdrawal from the race does not leave any opposition on the Republican ticket for Mr. Dauber. Electors will have to write in the names of opponents. John G. Evans, former prosecuting attorney has let it be known that he would like to have the office and it is reported that several others are considering entering the race.

Two Are Fined

An exceedingly light docket greeted Judge Sprague when he mounted the municipal court bench Thursday, the only offenders being traffic violators.

Walter Harris, 19 and John Arthur, 19, were assessed $5 and costs each for reckless driving when they admitted their guilt and Milton Crabtree, charged with driving with cut-out open, was dismissed with a warning after he had told his story.

Mother in Hospital Shown Body of Infant Killed In Auto-Train Wreck

The casket containing the body of Eugene Caldwell, 11 months old son of Mr. and Mrs. Allen Caldwell of Columbus, killed Monday when their sedan was demolished by an N. & W. train at the Franklin Furnace crossing, was taken to Hempstead Hospital Wednesday so the mother could view the remains before the body was sent to Lexington, Ky., for burial. The mother is slowly recovering from the serious bruises she sustained. The father was able to be up and about yesterday, and he made plans for the burial of the baby. Relatives of the couple live at Lexington.

Mr. and Mrs. Caldwell and baby were enroute home to Columbus from a visit in Lexington when the accident occurred. Relatives from Ashland, Ky., have been at the bedside of Mrs. Caldwell, who expects to be able to go to the home of relatives in Ashland in a few days.

Mr. Caldwell visited the scene of the wreck yesterday and after seeing the remains of the machine, said that he did not see how any of the three escaped being killed.

The body of the baby had been held at the Lynn morgue since the accident.

SOCIETY

Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Burke of Nauvoo entertained at 6 o'clock dinner Tuesday evening, a number of relatives including Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Crabtree (Ethel Burke), Mr. and Mrs. Roscoe Burke, Mrs. Callie Burke, Mrs. Cunningham and children, Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Burns, all of Wheelersburg, Mr. and Mrs. Seymore Burke of Portsmouth, Mr. and Mrs. John Maple of Portsmouth, Mr. and Mrs. Lester Ward, Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Burke and son, Lawson.

Perhaps the largest and one of the most enjoyable Sunday School picnics in the history of the First Christian church was held Thursday afternoon and evening, when the members of the Loyal Daughters' Class and the Loyal Young Men's Class held their annual picnic at the home of Albert Blevins on Dry Run. The crowd was so large that they were invited into an orchard adjoining the Blevins home where they spread their delicious picnic supper under the shade of the apple trees. The ladies furnished the "eats" while the men provided the machines to take the crowd to and from the scene of the picnic. Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Dodds were guests on this occasion and during the supper impromptu talks were given and songs were sung by the happy group.

C. F. Glickert proved to be a genial host last evening when he entertained about seventy-five friends with a lawn party at the beautiful suburban home of W. F. Kelley, in City View. The spacious lawn was attractively decorated with Japanese lanterns and an orchestra furnished a program of peppy music throughout the evening. The young folks enjoyed dancing and games and later an appetizing lunch was served.

He was given an examining trial and fined $100 and 30 days with Jailer George Darby for possessing the shine and will be held for the grand jury for the August term of Circuit court.

Miss Dolly Wise

She is here to answer any and all questions concerning love, matrimony, troubles, woes, etiquette, etc. Inquiries should be addressed to Miss Dolly Wise, care The Daily Times, Portsmouth, Ohio.

Dear Dolly—When several are crossing on the ferry boat and one says he will pay the fare, is it correct to say "I'll pay the ferryage." Dolly what do you think of girls flirting with men? Dolly I take my pretty sister out, and as we come from a long line of wealthy ancestors, and the boys all yell at us, "Oh You Sweet Mama," and it makes my blood run cold, I could fight them into mush. Have I got the right opinion? I am a boy five feet and two inches tall and have blue eyes and fair complexion and between light and dark hair. Dolly I read you column every night and you sure do hand it to some of them, but some of them deseve more than you give them.

BLUE-EYED DICK.

The one who intends to pay the "ferry" should do so without having an argument about it. However I don't think one peson should be expected to pay for a crowd. If there are boys and girls, each boy can pay for one girl. If they are all boys or all girls, they should pay their own fare. If you don't pay any attention to people who make remarks about you, the joke will be on them, and they will soon get tired of making fun of you.

Dear Dolly—I am a girl of 19 and in love with a boy of 25. He is very wealthy and lets me have anything I want to drink, I mean in the way of soft drinks. Dolly, there is also a wealthy girl who would like to have him, but he has asked me to marry him. Do you think he loves me, and how can I test him out to see? Dolly, he makes about $4 a day and I earn about $2 myself. Do you think that is good money, and could we get along on that?

LONESOME HATTIE.

I would not consider a man who only makes $24 a week wealthy, and I would not advise you to marry him until he is earning enough to furnish a home and provide you with the necessities of life. Perhaps when you are old enough to get married, the man will be making more money, and you will not have to keep on working.

Dear Dolly—Can you tell me what will take grease spots out of an old rose canton crepe dress, except having it dry cleaned? EDNA.

Gasoline, benzine or soap and water should take it out.

Dear Dolly—I would like for you to tell me how to cook chicken so that it will taste nice and sweet. I don't seem to be able to cook it so that it will melt in your mouth.

MRS. X. Y. Z.

To make chicken melt in your mouth you must have a nice, tender young chicken. You can't expect an old hen to be tender and sweet. Here's the way I cook chicken. Cut in pieces and roll in flour, to which has been added a little salt. Fry in skillet of hot grease or butter until nice and brown, then add a little cold water and put tight lid on the skillet and let steam until done. Remove from frying pan and make a gravy with the stock of the back, neck and giblets which should be boiling while the chicken is frying.

The meat from the boiled chicken may be used for a salad or sandwiches.

Dear Dolly—I would like to know if you can dye a black canton crepe another color, and if so, what color? A. G.

Black can't be dyed any other color. If you are tired of all black, you might combine it with some bright color, such as green, orange, red, black and white or mahogany.

Dear Dolly—I am 19 years old and all alone in the world. I have a man, but he is too mean to work or make a living. I am good looking and my friends tell me I am too good looking. I have a few freckles, but my freinds say they just set me off. Dolly give me some good advice about a man who is too mean to work and keep a nineteen-year-old wife. I have no home and no one to hold me back from having a nice home with wealthy people but him.

FRECKLES.

You have no one to blame but yourself for marrying a mean man who will not work. If you had gone with him a reasonable length of time and found out what kind of a man you were marrying you would not be in the fix you are now. Don't let people kid you about being good-looking. If you do, you are going to spoil your disposition and people will not love you as they do now.

ADVENTURES OF THE TWINS

THE YELLOWBILLS CHUTE-THE-CHUTES

"Good morning, Mrs. Yellowbill!" said Nick and Nancy.

"Good morning, Mister Zip!" said Mrs. Yellowbill Duck as she waddled through the turnstile of Happy Go Lucky Park, followed by her six children.

"Good morning, Mrs. Yellowbill!" nodded the little fairyman in a friendly way. Mister Zip was in a very good humor because business was so good.

"Good morning, Mrs. Yellowbill!" said Nick and Nancy as the duck lady and her family approached the lemonade, lollypop, ice cream cone stand.

"Good morning!" quacked Mrs. Yellowbill pleasantly. "What kind of lollypops do you have today?"

"Crab, watercress, cornmeal and lettuce," said Nick, picking out the flavors that he thought the duck children would like.

Crab! I want a crab lollypop," quacked Davy Duck. "I just love crab flavoring."

"Do you have any lollypops flavored with frogs?" asked Dolly Duck. "I think frog flavoring is better than vanilla or peppermint or anything."

"What's that?" boomed a big voice nearby. "Who is it that likes frog flavoring, I'd like to know?"

And there stood big green Granddaddy Frog looking over his as cross as two sticks.

"We were just saying," remarked Mrs. Yellowbill loudly, as she waddled up close to Granddady, "that we all liked frog flavoring very, very much indeed." And as she finished speaking, she didn't close her mouth at all but held it open so wide that Granddaddy didn't need his glasses to see half way down her throat.

"I—I heard you the first time," said Granddaddy hastily backing away to the place where his grandsons were waiting for him in the weeds. "Come, boys, we'll go and chute-the-chutes. I can't stand here all day talking about lollypops."

"Wh—what was he saying about shooting?" asked Mrs. Yellowbill nervously. "Did I hear him say that he was going to shoot something?"

"He's just going to chute-the-chutes," said Nick. "It's a sort of roller coaster that slides you off into the water and you get all splashed. I think that you and the children would like it."

"Why, I believe we would," said Mrs. Yellowbill. "Hurry, children, pick out your lollypops and we'll be going. Whatever it means to chute-the-chutes I don't know, but if it is something that splashes you, I'm sure we shall like it."

She paid for the lollypops and tucked her big pocketbook under her wing, and away they all went wiggling their tails and all talking at once, and by and by they came to the place where a big sign said "Chute-the-Chutes. 5 cents a Ride!"

"You get six tickets for a quarter," said Nick, who had followed along to see that the duck lady didn't get lost.

"Make it seven and I'll come," said Mrs. Yellowbill.

"All right," said Nick.

Sallie Ann Says

As I watched preparations for The Fashion's semi-annual July Clearance, which starts Saturday, I made up my mind to be among the "buyers" tomorrow. I'm surely going to have one of those "Lazarus" pattern hats for $1.98; and one of those pretty summer silks at $13.95. Then there's a twill coat in a light shade of grey, I've been admiring, that's very much reduced. The only trouble is, I haven't the money to spare just now. I guess though, if I decide I can't do without it, Mr. Atlas will charge it for me; for The Fashion always permits customers having charge accounts, to use them during a special sale, the same as any other time.

JACK DAW'S ADVENTURES — ON AN ICEBERG

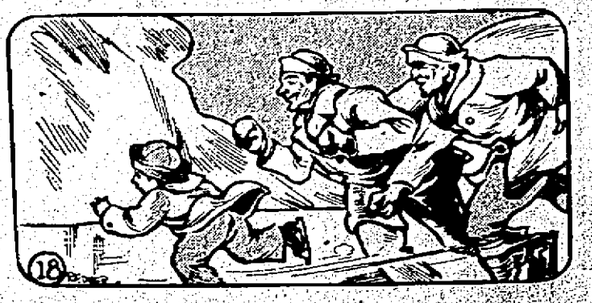

BY ELTON

One of the sailors then took both of the long sticks and with their help worked his way back to the good ship "Betsy Claire." Then he packed up three knapsacks of food and got three pairs of skates. He told the captain they would be gone for as hort time and then left the ship.

Arriving back where he had left Jack and the other sailor, the man with the knapsacks and skates turned one of each over to the little adventurer and the husky seaman. The sailors helped Jack put his knapsack on and then adjusted their own. Then the three explorers strapped on the skates.

"It looks like a long, level space ahead of us," said one of the sailors, "so we might just as well skate along instead of trying to walk." Very shortly they were whizzing over the ice. It was the finest skating Jack had ever had and he made the sailors travel fast to keep up with him. (Continued.)

BUTTON, BUTTON

Destructive brains! Slowly I opened my eyes; I yawned gloriously, drawing deep down into my lungs the winelike air; I raised my hands over my head and stretched until my toes touched the foot of the bed. I was conscious of my silk pajamas, the linen sheets, the silken coverlet. Through the open window I could see, in the distance, the green-clad mountains, closer, I could observe the seventh green of the golf-course. I rolled over on one side, burying my face in the downy pillow, to hide from the obsequious waiter the sudden mirth that had overwhelmed me.

The lifting, ten minutes ago, of the telephone that stood on a table by my bed, had been enough to wake into activity not merely this man, but half a dozen others, all of whose energies and thoughts had been directed toward the satisfaction of my wants. Oh, I tell you, I who have known direct poverty, that luxurious ease is worth the sacrifice of any principle.

And I should know! Had I not followed the path of honor across a bloody field in France, to learn that honor mocked me? Had I not adhered to all those righteous rules which the strong have laid down for the enslavement of the weak, and seen that adherence lead me from boarding-house to tenement, from tenement to slum, and from slum to the edge of the grave?

Honor had brought me starvation. What cant would term dishonor, had brought me a full stomach. Well, I had done with cant. The world had its rules; one must be productive or constructive, said the world. There was no place for those who belonged in neither class. And yet the lying world gave its best in place, in esteem, in what it terms success, to those outside those rigid categories. The rules were made for the herd; but I, John Ainsley, was no lumb to be shepherded. I was the wolf who prered outside the fold, and I had tasted meat. No more, while rascals stuffed themselves, would I go hungry. I had destructive brains. I would use them.

Yet I would use them as a gentleman must always use his strength, for though I discarded morality, breeding could never leave me. Not upon the lambs, nor upon the shepherd, but upon the beasts of prey who lurked outside, would I feed.

And I was savoring now the luxury of my first kill. In New York the famous jeweler Daragon—a cur at heart—mourned the loss of a bauble wherewith he had hoped to force a woman to his will, but with which I had forced the world to my will. Here in this resort hotel, I rallied forces that had been exhausted by months of suffering when I had played the game according to the silly rules that I now derided.

For a moment or two, after the waiter had gone, I merely looked at my breakfast. There was a certain joy, not explainable to those who have never starved, in looking at the iced grapefruit, the yellow omelet and the golden toast. And then eager appetite mastered me. I laughed as I found myself reaching for a fifth slice of toast. I must remember that times had changed, and that it was not necessary for me to overeat; as inevitably as the hotel clock struck one, so would I lunch. Last year, when the scanty, coarse meal before me must do me a day, or two days, or even three, it was all very well, even vitally necessary, that I clean the plate. But now I could permit myself a daintiness forbidden not so long ago. And as I replaced the toast upon the dish, I remembered that I had promised to be on the first tee at ten o'clock. I looked at the clock on the wall, found that I had but a half-hour in which to dress, and leaped from the bed. I was shaved and bathed, and attired with a certain correctness possible only to a gentleman born, and was at the appointed place, eactly on the hour. My opponent was awaiting me, watch in hand.

"Thought you might have changed your mind, Mr. Ainsley," he said to me.

"Am I late?" I asked.

He grinned offensively. "Oh, you're in plenty of time," he answered. "For a beating!" he added.

I looked at him; a tall, burly man, with protruding blue eyes, and thin sandy hair, he was exactly the type which, for some reason, is most offensive to me. I find that men with those characteristics, especially if their Adam's apples are very large, are usually braggarts. He was not the person whom I would have selected as my opponent. But last night, in the dining-room, an elderly gentleman with whom I had struck up a casual acquaintance on the course—I had played the last nine holes with him, and he had complimented me on my play—asked me to his table for coffee. He introduced me to his wife and to his daughter, and to my opponent of today, Ernest Vantine, whom I took to be the fiance of the daughter. Kernochan, my elderly friend, expatiated on my prowess to his prospective son-in-law. Whereupon Vantine promptly challenged me to a match. In the course of our conversation I mentioned that, during a leave of absence in the war, I had played Westward Ho, in England, in eight-one. Vantine had shown an immediate disbelief in my statement. He remarked that he had seen me driving, and that I didn't look like an eighty-one player to him.

"In fact," he had added insolently, "I'd be willing to bet five hundred dollars that you can't beat me, and I'm never below eighty-five."

I reminded him that I had played but little in recent years, and that I had no doubt that he could beat me. Whereupon he had sneered and remarked that he always found it thus; people talked low golf-scores, but when it came to reinforcing conversation with money, they usually crawled into their holes. His fiancee, Miss Kernochan, applauded his statement. I regretted that courtesy toward an elderly man had led me into the indiscretion of joining his table. For Kernochan was as vulgar as his daughter's lover. And suddenly, when Vantine began telling everyone within earshot that he had "called my bluff," an unreasoning anger possessed me. I accepted his challenge.

So, here I was upon the first tee, the cynosure of a large gallery, many of whom privately wished me luck, but all of whom were hopeless of my ability to defeat a man who I had learned last night was the best player in the resort. He had lied when he stated that his best game was eighty-five. According to my informants, and well-wishers of today, Vantine was capable of seventy-eight. He had won a great deal of money by making unfair matches with strangers, gonding them into wagers.

Well, it was my own fault. I asked sympathy neither from the gallery nor from myself, but played the best golf I knew. It was not good enough to beat Vantine; it was not good enough, so lacking was I in practice, even to give him an argument. The match ended six and five, on the thirteenth green. I acted becomingly, I hope. I promptly congratulated Vantine, and immediately paid him the wager. He took it without shame. Nor did Kernochan or his daughter seem to think that Vantine had acted otherwise than as a gentleman should. In fact, people told me that it was Kernochan's habit to engage in a match with any newcomer to the hotel, and then praise the stranger's play to Vantine, who would promptly badger him into a match and a bet.

But I smiled as these things were told to me. I had been silly, and being silly is apt to prove exxpensive. I never mourn spilled milk. Instead, I look for a dairy.

That night I was as cordial at dinner as though nothing untoward had occurred. Miss Kernochan invited me to make a fourth at bridge, and I accepted. We played in the Kernchan apartment, and I won a few dollars. But I did more than that, I won the liking of old Kernochan, and even the sour-featured daughter, and her pop-eyed lover were quite cordial. Kernochan, like all parvenus—he was obviously that—talked continuously of his wealth. I learned that he was a retired broker, and that Vantine was the chief owner of a detective agency that bore his name. This latter fact came out when Kernochan showed me, as proof of his great wealth, a ring which he had given his daughter upon her engagement to Vantine. He brought it from an inner room.

"The setting is a little loose, so Alice isn't wearing it," he told me. "I shall have it fixxed in New York next week."

I admired the ring. An enormous ruby, it was worthy of the warmest admiration. And I, who had dealt so successfully with another ring not so long ago, eyed it with longing appreciation. I encouraged the old vulgarian to tell me about the stone.

Sees World Served by Single Radio System

LONDON, July 11.—The whole civilized world will eventually be served by a single system of radio broadcasting, it was predicted today before the world power conference in a joint contribution made by W. J. Brown of Metropolitan cities, Great Britain and Dr. W. H. Easton, of the Westinghouse Electric and Manufacturing company of the United States.

The system, it was stated, would be based on the use of inaudible short waves sent out by a large station and caught by small local stations which would re-broadcast them on audible wave lengths. The possibilities of this new system were proved last year, it was said, by tests between the inaudible station KDKA at East Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania and the station QUAC at Manchester, England which rebroadcast audibly.

ELSIE BAKER DELIGHTS AUDIENCE CHAUTAUQUA WILL CLOSE TONIGHT

With the "Evening in Hawaii," presented tonight, Portsmouth's Chautauqua for 1924 will come to a close. Interest has increased daily during the season and the audience which greeted Elsie Baker, contralto, at her concert last night was the largest of the week.

Miss Baker was remarkably generous with her encores singing the light little fantasy "The Lilac Tree" following her first number. Her second group was made up of numbers which contrasted sharply, giving the sustained narrative ballad style in Grieg's "The Princess", the florid show measures of Debussy "Mandolin" and the flute thrill of "Mozart" "Alleluja". Miss Baker does the negro spirituals beautifully, with no striving after effect, and her audience thoroughly enjoyed "Swing Low, Sweet Chariot," the encore number following the second group. For additional encores Miss Baker used "Didn't it Rain," "Long, Long Ago," "the Cradle Song," and especialy for the children a bright little ditty about the cuckoo clock. Following her singing of Briel's "Song of the Soul" the audience didn't want to let her go, so she returned to sing "Silent Night" and when they begged for more closed her program with the rollicking 'Come to the Fair."

Grover Tilden Davis, composer and pianist gave always most sympathetic acompaniments, and exhibited facile fingers and an extreme delicacy of touch in his solo numbers.

At yesterday afternoon's session the Duval Brother entertained the kiddies—plus the grown up children, with their sleight of hand performances and mysterious stunts. The little folk from the Scioto county children's home occupied the front seats and though they shrieked with glee they didn't shriek any louder than did some of the grown-ups in the rear of the tent.

J. H. Finney spoke briefly at last night's meeting asking for pledges of support for Chautauqua next year. Nearly a hundred men and women stood to pledge that they would be guarantors for a 1925 Chautauqua for Portsmouth.

A Mighty Costly Tire

Sam Miller and Roscoe Eblin facing Mayor Bierley of New Boston yesterday on charges of petit larceney were found guilty, fined and given jail sentences. Miller was fined $100 and costs and Eblin $50 and costs and each was sentenced to 30 days in the county jail.

A farmer named Skaggs of beyond Minford preferred charges against the young men who he claims stole an auto tire from him several nights ago. According to Skaggs he befriended the young men by helping them patch a tire early in the day near his place. Late that night he says they passed the place again and stole a tire. Skaggs claimed they drove by his place on a rim and after going about a half mile down the road put his tire on their machine. He traced the machine by the marks made by the rim and then followed the imprints of his tire. On reaching New Boston he searched cars until he came to the tire he claimed was his. It was on the machine used by Miller and Eblin.

Kept Awake by Nervous Heart

Many people are often kept awake for hours at night by a peculiar nervous feeling in the heart region. Sometimes the distress begins as soon as you lie down, but occasionally you are awakened out of a sound sleep by the heart fluttering or pounding. Such an attack may be accompanied by extreme nervousness or a terrible feeling of oppression. Perhaps you struggle and gasp for breath, wondering if each moment is your last on earth.

Most persons troubled in this way blame the heart, when in reality the condition may be due to gas in the stomach pressing against the heart. Where the discomfort is caused by gas, Eopa Gas Tablets will generally bring relief within a few minutes. They prevent gas from accumulating in the stomach and bowels and help to end the trouble permanently. Eopa Gas Tablets —price, $1.00 a package. ABIE, THE AGENT — He's A Thing Apart

Boosters Spread Co-Operative Spirit in South Webster, Oak Hill and Jackson; Are Royally Entertained

Spreading a spirit of good-will and co-operation among the citizens of South Webster, Oak Hill and Jackson, the Portsmouth Boosters yesterday completed one of the most successful tours they have yet made. Leaving Tracy Park at 1 o'clock in a caravan of machines bedecked in various colored streamers, the Boosters, over 100 strong, made their way to South Webster, the first stop. They were royally greeted in that village, and after being escorted to a lawn, screened by shade trees, they started their program. The band played several selections and soon drew a good sized crowd. Albert L. Marting acted as chairman at this stop and introduced Miss Irene Stone, who gave a number of readings and sang a few selections to the accompaniment of her ukelele. O. E. Rickey, the speaker for the day, was next introduced and drew much interest from the crowd when he talked on good roads and the hearty co-operative spirit which has always existed between the citizens of South Webster and Portsmouth.

The next place to be visited by the boosters was Oak Hill where a large crowd, headed by D. D. Davis, president of Oak Hill Savings bank turned out to welcome the Portsmouth visitors. Selections were given by the band, then Miss Stone entertained the audience with many of her catchy songs, and got the people in good humor to listen to the address delivered by Mr. Rickey. Here Mr. Rickey again talked on the value of co-operation and the opportunities that would come to the people of these towns by all getting together and pulling for good roads. He said that much could be done to help the people of Oak Hill to get good roads leading to Portsmouth and promised the support of every booster in urging the Scioto county officials to get busy and make improvements of this road that would enable people living there to travel to Portsmouth and other points south with comfort. He also expressed his gratitude to the people of Oak Hill in extending an improved road close to Scioto county line and made plain the fact that the Portsmouth boosters club would do everything in its power to bring about some developments along this line.

After about 30 minutes in Oak Hill the boosters made their way to Jackson which was the last stop on this tour. Here Mayor W. R. Hudson welcomed the Portsmouth visitors with a warm address in which he made plain the fact that his people were ready to stand by Portsmouth and assured them that they would be welcome guests to his city. After his address which brought many cheers from the crowd, Miss Stone entertained the audience with her recitations. Then Mr. Rickey was introduced and delivered a splendid address to a large crowd. He again talked on the value of co-operation with Portsmouth and told how much was to be gained on the part of all by getting together and fighting for good roads, good will and told of the possibilities that were here for making this part of the Ohio valley one of the greatest industrial centers in the country. He told the people of the contemplated canal from Lake Erie to the Ohio river which would bring about much prosperity for the people along this line and of the natural resources which we had that would make all this possible.

In his talk Mr. Rickey stated that Portsmouth did not want Jackson trade, when the article could be bought in Jackson, but when it could not be bought there. Portsmouth had it and would give the best service possible to Jackson people. For illustration he told the people that when he was a boy he lived in the country and there were two things that he dearly loved to eat that could not be had at the village store. These two things were a rare species of bakers' bread and a certain kind of bologna. Whenever he came to Portsmouth he was sure to get these articles. This illustration was enjoyed by the Jackson citizens and during the chicken dinner the Boosters enjoyed at the Cambrian Hotel, Si Straus entered the dining room with a link of bologna and a loaf of bakers' bread for Mr. Rickey. After a short speech Mr. Straus handed these two articles to Mr. Rickey.

Telegrams to Davis Promise Support those who today sent telegrams to John W. Davis was Irving Fisher, professor of Economics at Yale University who is now on a speaking tour in the behalf of the league of nations under the auspices of the league of nations non-partisan association.

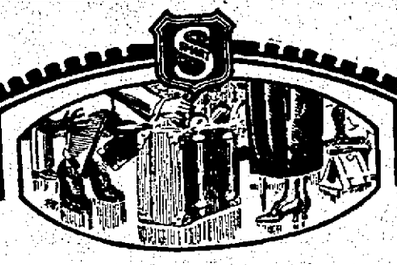

"Count me henceforth as a Democrat," said Professor Fisher in his telegra mfrom Ogden, Utah. "Please strive to counteract the burn done by Baker (Newton D. Baker) in his speech which, though wonderful, created the impression that the Democrats repudiated the league of nations."

Others from whom telegrams were received were Brand Whitlock, former ambassador to Belgium, who is now in Brussels. Richard Olney, the Washington and Lee University Alumni Association of New Orleans; J. S. McDonald, president of the Kansas State League of Young Democrats; C. H. Syne, chairman of the newly formed Davis-Bryan Club of Washington; the American Club of London, and Arthur Woods, former police commissioner of New York City.

Later visitors at the Polk home included Henry Morgenthau, former ambassador to Turkey; Governor Trapp, of Oklahoma and Walter Lippman, New York editor.

The Erring Wife And Mother is the woman who sacrifices her health and consequent happiness to her ambition. We all know such women,—anxious that their homes shall be kept immaculately neat and attractive and their children well dressed they overdo and soon bring on some feminine ailment which is evidenced by nervousness, irritability, headache, backache and other aches and pains attending such ills. Every woman should remember that the most successful remedy for such conditions is Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound which for fifty years has been restoring women to health, strength and happiness.—Adv

SEND EXTORTION LETTER

ROCKFORD, ILL., July 11.—George Peek and his son, Clarence, farm hands of Buncombe county, North Carolina, alleged to have sent a letter to Senator and Mrs. Medill McCormick demanding $50,000 to "insure their happiness," were held to the October grand jury on a charge of attempted extortion today at a preliminary hearing before a justice of the peace. They were unable to furnish bonds and were sent to jail.

The elder Peek faced Mrs. McCormick in court today and repeated his charge that John Wright, well to do farmer and his employer was responsible for the extortion letter, and that Peek and his son went to a culvert where a decoy letter had been placed, on Wright's instruction, while unaware of the plan to obtain money from the McCormicks.

Three Friends Shaking Hands Knocked Out By Blow From Pole

CINCINNATI, July 11.—The police records concerning accidents hold no more odd record than that in the report of a simultaneous mishap to three friends who met in front of a store here today.

From Siloam, Kentucky, Comes Interesting News

Day after day people living in Portsmouth and surrounding towns are coming in to Fisher & Streich's Pharmacy to tell their remarkable experience with Pepgen, the famous medicine which has become so popular here.

"I never saw the equal of Pepgen," declared Mr. G. O. Lewis, a resident of Siloam, Ky., while in one if being followed with that could not eat a single meal with attacks of gas and bloating. I My food would not digest properly and I suffered daily from very bad state of health.

"I was in a general run down condition this spring, in fact in a bottle of the preparation "Then I became nervous. I could not sit still in the evening and when it came bed time I never could lay down and go to sleep. Sometimes I did not get an hour's sleep all night long.

"In the mornings I felt depressed and worn. Life itself was a burden.

"I heard so many of the folks I knew talking about this Pepgen that I finally decided to try it. I got a bottle and began taking it one evening. Within a couple of days I noticed an improvement. I felt better all over. My appetite got better and I could eat without having any indigestion. Then my nerves became stronger and I found myself going right to bed and sleeping fine. Now I am in good shape and the credit is due to Pepgen. I can sure recommend it to anyone who is troubled as I was."

CAUTION: The genuine Pepgen is packed in a white and blue carton and may be obtained in Portsmouth only at Fisher and Streich's Pharmacy, corner Sixth and Chillicothe Sts., Kelso's Pharmacy, New Boston. There is a Pepgen Store in every nearby town.—advertisement.

The fast-drying track is expected to be at its best for the Derby, providing no more rain falls today.

Meet In New Hall

A good attendance marked the open meeting held in Moose hall, Third and Washington streets, last night under the auspices of Will H. Eltzroth of Cincinnati, field organizer for the Patriotic Order Sons of America, who is endeavoring to revive a lodge here. Portsmouth had a lodge of this order many years ago, the organization being in its 77th year.

At last night's meeting the main address was delivered by Attorney Mark Crawford on "Americanism." He declared that "the paramount causes of unrest in America are the domination of commercialism and materialism and the cure for this condition is the elevation of personal ideals." In closing his remarks he said: "The people are the father of the government, not the government the father of the people." Other speakers included Mr. Will H. Kline of this city and a member of the lodge at Scranton, Pa., and Robert Lewis Conant, a U. S. emigration officer, and a member of the Trenton, N. J. lodge.

The principles of the lodge are patriotism, education and fraternity, it is non-sectarian and non-political but is for native born Americans only.

Another meeting will be held Friday evening at 7:30 in Moose hall.

Returns To Cincinnati

Forrest Bradford, former Portsmouth resident, has returned to Cincinnati after a brief visit with friends here. He was accompanied by Charles Muscraft, entertainer with Bradford's Orchestra, which is now playing at Kelly's Inn, a roadhouse outside of Cincinnati.

New Bus Line Through Various Sections of City Is Endorsed By West End Business Men

Members of the West End Improvement Association, failing in their efforts to have the Portsmouth Public Service Company change its proposed routes of contemplated bus lines so that a terminus would be established in the West End, decided at a meeting last evening to endorse extension of bus lines operated by J. S. Lykins. Mr. Lykins has already filed apetition with the State Public Utilities Commission seeking a permit to extend his bus line from the West End terminus so that it will include the East End and Hilltop and Lucasville, the last named extension extending from Dry Run, the present northern terminus.

At the meeting Mr. Lykins said "The route over which I intend to operate in the city would not infringe upon the route the Portsmouth Public Service Company contemplates using."

The compromise offered at a recent meeting by the Public Service Co. which was opposed and protested by the West End Improvement Association would carry their route from Gallia street south on Chillicothe to Fourth, west on Fourth to Washington, north on Washington to Fifth, east on Fifth to Chillicothe.

Following is the eastern half of the route proposed by Mr. Lykins which the West Enders have approved:

"Second and Market streets north to Third, east on Third to Chillicothe, north on Chillicothe to Gallia and Kinney's Lane. Eastern route then follows Gallia to Young street; north on Young to Vinton avenue, west on Vinton to High, north on High to Grant, west on Grant to Grandview, north on Grandview to Twenty-first and Kinney's Lane to Chillicothe, south on Chillicothe to Third and back to the terminus. The route north on Chillicothe and Kinney's Lane will be the reverse of the Gallia street route, and will make a continuous belt line that passes almost every factory in the main section of the city and passes within a block or two of principal churches, hospitals, schools, hotels and the cemetery," Mr. Lykins said.

"This line does not necessarily infringe upon the two proposed routes of the Public Service Co. to the Hilltop residence section," he added. "The street car lines are avoided almost entirely and for this reason Second street from Market to Chillicothe is not included in the route."

"Washington street would be used instead of Chillicothe," he declared, "if this routing would be acceptable to the Chillicothe street merchants."

"Transfers will be provided on my route to New Boston, Sciotoville and Wheelersburg, on the White Star line busses, and to the West Side by other busses of my own. I also intend to extend my West Side line from Dry Run to Lucasville," Mr. Lykins said.

He told the members of that Association that he would put twenty-one passenger busses in operation. These will be Ren machines or some similar type lighter than the average bus.

"The West End Improvement Association," said C. H. Whitehouse, secretary of the organization, "has entered formal protest with the Public Utilities Commission against the proposed routes of the Portsmouth Public Service Co. because of discrimination against the West End business district. A committee has conferred with the commissioners and asked for a public hearing on the various routes proposed by the Public Service Co. and Mr. Lykins.

"The West End Improvement Association does not want a controversy over the proposed competitive route but the members and officers are unanimous in the opinion that the route proposed by the Public Service Co. is discriminatory.

"The Association will endorse the Lykins line."

The matter of marking parking spaces between Second and Third streets on Market was discussed and upon motion of John Sommer it was decided to petition council to widen both sides of the street by cutting down the esplanade so that only a sidewalk will remain. This will double the amount of parking space, it was said.

Arthur Dismissed

Orin Arthur, arrested last week by Patrolman Bonzo on an alleged "masher" charge, was dismissed in Municipal court on a rehearing by Judge William R. Sprague.

Mr. Arthur was represented by Attorneys Miller & Searl. He strenuously denied the charge against him, and insisted that he was whistling at a man friend, when the whistle was overheard by some young women nearby.

The company also charges Wheeler contributed to his injury through negligence. Court is asked to dismiss the petition.

Burglar? Nope Just Rat, Well, Giddap

Police received a call last night that a burglar was prowling around in the neighborhood of the Independent Taxi Company on Ninth street. Several officers immediately rushed to that vicinity and started an investigation. Some of the men went in the alley between Ninth and Tenth street and were walking along the fence when they heard a noice which they thought was made by the supposed burglar. Officer Frazier climbed the fence and made his way to the point from which the noise came. The officers soon heard Fraizer exclaim, "I have hom." They went to his assistance only to find that the "prowler" was a large rat which had been caught in a trap.

Terry Druggan, Millionaire Brewer, Jailed for Year On Contempt Charge

CHICAGO, July 11—Terry Druggan, reputed millionaire brewer and Frank Lake, his partner, today were sentenced to jail for one year and fined $1,000 each by Federal Judge Wilkerson for contempt of court.

The contempt charge was based on the removal of four carloads of beer from the Standard Beverage company plant, after a federal injunction closing the plant had been issued.

Druggan, once known as the head of the "Valley Bang," a band of alleged beer runners and hi-jackers later blossomed out as a man of wealth, interested in the ownership and operation of a half dozen breweries.

A few months ago a country estate once purchased by Charles Weegham, former baseball magnate and for a brief time president of the Chicago National League Baseball club, was sold to Druggan's mother, but it was currently reported that Druggan bought it.

Druggan and Lake, long considered immune, have been arrested 100 times, or more in connection with beer making, beer running, carrying guns and killing. Always before they were freed, usually by a jury.

They still face charges of violating the prohibition law.

Money and Lives Are Saved By The Arrest of 31 Chinese Gunmen

CLEVELAND, O., July 11.—(By the Associated Press)—Prompt action by the local police last night in arresting thirty-one alleged members of a gang of Chinese gunmen not only saved the On Leong Chinese merchants' association in annual convention here $35,000 but probably saved several lives, leaders of the association declared today. Arraignment of those arrested was set for today.

Those taken into custody are members of a rival tong, William Lee, secretary of the association said, and until their arrest the Chinese district here was the scene of a tong war scare. A large number of the gang preceded delegates to the convention at Cleveland, Lee said and had plotted to escape with $25,000 raised through a loan on a piece of property.

Opening of the convention was delayed two hours until the alleged gunmen were rounded up. Secretary Lee and the delegates to the convention, armed with a printed list of the men, they feared, accompanied the police on a tour of Chinatown, and as fast as one suspect was sighted he was placed under arrest.

Doors were broken down when found locked and every building in Chinatown was searched. Four revolvers, one shot gun, a handful of ammunition and two complete opium smoking outfits were seized. Those armed when arrested would be charged with carrying concealed weapons, police said, and the others booked as suspicious persons, unless they can give a satisfactory account of themselves.

The convention continues through July 21.

French Senate Votes Confidence In Premier For Establishing Goodwill With British

PARIS, July 11—(By the Associated Press)—The French senate today by a vote of 246 to 18 expressed its confidence in Premier Herriot after the premier had stated that the role of his government was to re-establish cordial relations with Great Britain.

PARIS, July 11—(By the United Press)—Relations between France and England were reconciled during the recent conversations between Premier Herriot and Prime Minister MacDonald in England, Herriot said in answer to interpellations in the senate today.

"The program of the committee of experts headed by General Dawes of the United States (for settlement of German reparations) is not perfect," the premier admitted, "but we must remember that the first duty of the present government was to restore cordial Franco-British relations."

This, the premier explained, was accomplished by his visit to England. His conversation with MacDonald at Chequers, the British prime minister's country estate was very cordial, Herriot said, and resulted in a reconciliation of the Franco-British viewpoint toward Germany.

Changes Plea To Not Guilty In Attempt To Escape the Gallows

CHICAGO, July 11—Russell Scott, former Toronto promoter, who turned bandit, escaped with his life today when Circuit Judge Lindsay allowed him to withdraw his plea of guilty and enter one of not guilty to the charge of murder of John Maurer, a drug clerk, in a holdup.

Death on the gallows had Scott in its shadow after he pleaded guilty on advice of his attorney, and Judge Lindsay had indicated that he felt impelled to impose the death penalty.

A remarkable court scene followed, when the attorney, realizing that his advice was about to result in the hanging of his client, broke into tears and pleaded with the court not to inflict death. Judge Lindsay replied that there were no mitigating circumstances in the case and indicated that he felt warranted in uttering the extreme sentence.

Scott's counsel then pleaded for permission to withdraw the plea of guilty. The granting of this plea today permits Scott to go to trial before a jury. Scott was captured after a holdup of the City Hall pharmacy, opposite the City Hall last November, when Maurer, the clerk, was killed.

Truck Fees, Licenses Will Be Collected

COLUMBUS, July 11—Secretary of State Thad H. Brown, today notified Chalmers R. Wilson, state registrar of automobiles to proceed with the collection of automobile truck fees and licenses. The temporary injunction granted by the Franklin County Common Pleas court restraining collection of the tax expired yesterday.

When Brown attempted to collect the fees last January, the Fisher Brothers company, Cleveland and the Foltz Grocery and Baking company, Cincinnati, obtained an injunction restraining collection pending the hearing of suits to test the constitutionality of the law. The truck people contended the law is discriminatory in that it provides for different rates for trucks of the same weight. The tax is based on weight and horsepower.

Scioto Co. Passed Up By Director Truax

Scioto County seems to have been lost in the redistricting of Ohio by Director of Agriculture, Charle V. Truax and D. O. Thompson, chief of the fish and game division, for the purpose of "supervision and enforcement of the game laws."

The tenth district, which would naturally include Scioto county, is described as being composed of "Brown, Clermont, Highland, Adams, Ross, Jackson, Gallia, Lawrence and Pike counties," thus surrounding Scioto county on all sides by the proposed tenth district.

Supervisor Frank D. Voorhees of the Roosevelt game preserve, in charge locally of fish and game law enforcement, said last night that he had not been informed of the proposed redistricting, and expressed surprise when told that Scioto county had been left out of the platting.

No general supervisor is named for the district, according to the word from Columbus, but the following have been named as supervisors: Game Protectors — John Srofe, Georgetown; Clyde Srofe, Hillsboro; William A. Francis, Kingston; F. M. Cherington, Jackson; J. E. Harison, Gallipolis; W. W. Allen, Ironton and W. H. Downing, Waverly. These men are salaried game wardens already charged by law with the duty of supervising enforcement of game laws, not only in one territory, but in the entire state.

Terminal Sunday School Enjoys Picnic

About one hundred and twenty-five members of the Terminals Sunday School enoyed the picnic held Thursday at Beechwood Banks, near Scioto ville. The jolly crowd gathered at the church at 9:30 and proceeded to the camp in automobiles. The day was spent in boating, swimming, races, baseball, and visiting with one another. A swim provided enjoyment for the little folks.

Well-filled baskets furnished a bountiful picnic dinner at noon a well as supper in the evening. The tables fairly groaned with the weight of good things and every healthy boy and girl ound his appetite fully supplied. The return trip was made at 9 o'clock, with everyone tired but happy and all proclaimed it the best affair Terminals church has ever had.

The arrangements were in charge of a committee composed of the teachers and officers of the Sunday school, with E. M. Kaufman as chairman. The entire school is grateful to Mr. Ben Stewart for the use of his camp, Beechwood Banks, and for the ice water so generously furnished.

2 Persons Seriously Hurt; 3 Slightly When Auto Picnic-Bound Goes Into West Side Ditch

Two persons were seriously injured, three slightly injured and another escaped injury and all had a close call from being killed about three o'clock Thursday afternoon when a Velle touring car driven by Cecil Snyder of 1408 Mound street, left Buena Vista pike and turned turtle in a ditch by the side of the road, the scene of the accident being several hundred yards east of Carey's Run.

Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Snyder were the most seriously injured. Mrs. Harry Veneer, 1417 Mound street, Miss Evelyn Albert, 2117 Gallia street, and Miss Vina Conkel, 1401 Mound street, suffered slight cuts and bruises, while Miss Albert Dodds of 1402 Mound street, escaped being injured.

The auto wreck put a sudden end to an outing which a Sunday School class of Calvary Baptist church intended to have on Turkey Creek late yesterday afternoon.

According to Mr. Snyder he was driving at a good rate of speed as he noticed that the road was clear but that, all of a sudden a machine that had been standing at the right of the road started to the left side of the paved road towards the Campbell oil filling station in front of the Mrs. Nola Jones home. Snyder applied the brakes, sent his car into the two foot ditch, hoping that it would climb out again on the paving. A wheel broke down as the car hit the ditch and this caused the car to turn turtle.

Miss Dodds was in the front seat with Mr. and Mrs. Snyder. As the machine struck the ditch she was thrown clear of the machine. The other five were caught in the machine and were lying on the top when assisted from the wrecked machine. Mr. Snyder was knocked unconscious for a short time. He told the persons who came to their aid to get ambulances and send the other members of the party to a hospital as he thought he was so badly injured there was no need of his going to the hospital.

The Lynn and Richards ambulances were summoned and the five injured persons were removed to Hempstead hospital. Mrs. Veneer, Miss Conkel and Miss Alberts were taken in the Richards ambulance and Mr. and Mrs. Snyder in the Lynn machine.

Another member of the picnic party in another machine took Miss Dodds to her home.

At the hospital it was soon found that Mr. and Mrs. Snyder were the most seriously injured. Miss Conkel and Mrs. Veneer were allowed to go home soon after their injuries were dressed but Miss Alberts remained at the hospital until last evening when she was dismissed. She is just recovering from an operation she underwent in the hospital some weeks ago.

Mrs. Snyder sustained a jagged and deep scalp cut that exposed the bone. Several stitches were taken to close it. She also had stitches taken in a cut on her left hand. In addition she sustained serious bruises and probable internal injuries.

Mr. Snyder had stitches taken in cuts on his right cheek and chin and suffered serious bruises about the right chest, side, back and abdomen. It was feared last night that he had sustained internal injuries about the chest that might prove dangerous but this condition had cleared considerably this morning and it was announced that they would be allowed to return home today under the care of a special nurse.

X-rays were taken today of Mrs. Snyder's back and Mr. Snyders chest and side.

A pleasant afternoon had been planned by the class, which is taught by Mrs. Ella Cooper at the Calvary Baptist church school, Hutchins street.

Three cars, that driven by Mr. Snyder and machines driven by Mrs. Sadie Sheets and Roscoe Cooper were taking the picnicers to Turkey Creek where they expected to enjoy bathing, games, and picnic supper.

Mrs. Donald Ives is president of the class, and Mrs. Harry Veneer is secretary.

Car Badly Damaged.

The Velie machine was badly damaged. The top was totally destroyed, and the right front wheel was broken down, although the tire was not punctured. Mashed fenders, and other damaged parts were mute evidence to the power which forced the car to turn over.

Court House

Contempt Charges Dismissed

W. A. Greathouse and wife, Sarah Greathouse, of near Wheelersburg, were before Probate Court Thursday for contempt for refusing to obey a citation to appear in court in connection with an effort being made by a local civic organization to have their crippled child given needed surgical aid.

The contempt charges were not pressed when the parents, on their appearance before Judge Gilliland, consented to the child being sent to a Cincinnati hospital for treatment.

Executor Appointed

George L. Hummel has been appointed by the Probate Court as executor of the estate of his late sister, Emma Hummel, who died recently at her home in this city, leaving property consisting entirely of realty, with an estimated value of $3,300.

Taken Under Advisement

Judge Thomas heard the evidence in the divorce and alimony suit of Della Applegate, 2018 Gallia avenue, against Jesse Applegate, steelworker, in Common Pleas court Friday and then took the case under advisement.

The wife said she was only 15 years old when she married Applegate at Olive Hill, Ky., in 1912, and she complained of cruelty, declaring that he cursed and abused, beat and otherwise mistreated her during the time she lived with him and which led to their separation last April. She claimed that Applegate was insanely jealous of her and then she complained that he was fond of associating with other women and squandered his earnings on his female friends.

Applegate in his cross petition accused the wife of neglect and with associating with other men.

Attorney A. R. Campbell, Jr., for plaintiff and Attorney Guy Blair for defendant.

Grace Eshom Seeks Divorce

Grace Eshom charges neglect and cruelty in her suit for divorce and alimony with custody of their two minor children, Hazel, 6, and Helen, 5, instituted Friday in Common Pleas court against William Eshom, whom she married in February, 1917.

Plaintiff in her petition filed through Attorney E. G. Millar avers that Eshom has neglected and failed to support her and their children and declares that he has struck and otherwise abused her. She avers that on July 31, 1920, he assaulted and severely injured her and which led to their separation. She claims they lived apart until February, 1924, when she was induced to return to the defendant o nhis promise to make a home for his family, but complains that he deserted them at the end of five days and has since been absent.

To Execute Estate

Margaret L. McMahon has been appointed by the Probate court as executrix of the estate of her late mother, Mary C. McMahon, who died recently at her home in this city, leaving property, consisting entirely of real estate, valued at $15,000.

Fined Costs For Throwing Brick

Roy Johnson, 16, colored youth, was assessed the costs by Judge Gilliland following a hearing in Juvenile court Friday for striking John Fields, 15, also colored, in the head with a brick but on June 30. The testimony indicated that the Fields boy was to blame for the trouble which resulted from him scaring the Johnson youth with an artifical snake as he was passing along the street on June 30.

The Fields boy is recovering from the blow at the home of his father, William Fields in the North End. His condition for several days was serious.

Charges Neglect

Alleging neglect and infidelity and naming one Emma Akers, Dora Roe seeks divorce from Samuel Roe in an action filed Friday in Common Pleas court.

Plaintiff in her petition filed through Attorneys Miller and Searl says she married Roe in April, 1920, at Vanceburg, and alleges that he left her in July, 1922, since which time she says he has failed and refused to support her. She further complains that Roe has for some time and is now living with the "other woman" in Covington, Ky.

SOCIETY

A most charming social event of the week was presided over by Mrs. Freeman Chase, Thursday afternoon, when she received the members of the Berean Baptist Ladies' Aid in her home on Farney avenue. Her lovely home was beautiful with its profusion of roses, sweet peas and other summer flowers.

A program, which proved a delightful sucess, was due to Mrs. Carl Bonzo, chairman. It consisted of musical numbers by Mrs. Glen Leightner, Mrs. Ola Rae and Miss Virginia Overstreet.

Following the program a dainty refreshment course was served by the hostess, assisted by Miss Temperance Sherman and Mrs. Donald H. Dressler (Anna Margaret Moore).

Among the members and guests were: Mrs. Alfred Moore, Mrs. Clarence Coldiron, Mrs. Noah Shoemaker and daughter, Louise, Mrs. Roy Shoemaker and children, Gladys and Lucile, Mrs. Paul Haley, Mrs. Carl Bonzo, Mrs. Carl Glass, Mrs. H. Kurtz, Mrs. Ola Rae, Mrs. Glen Leightner, Mrs. Henninger, Rev. Wm. Overstreet and daughter Virginia, Miss Temperance Sherman, Miss Belle Jenkins and Mrs. Donald H. Dressler.

PUBLIC UTILITIES DEMAND CHECKS STOCK DECLINE

More Profit Taking Is In Evidence Among The Standard Industrials; Foreign Exchange Firm

NEW YORK, July 11.—Extensive readjustment of speculative accounts resulted in considerable irregularity in today's stock market. A renewed demand for the rails sent six issues, including Chesapeake and Ohio, to new 1924 highs. Profit-taking in a number of the standard industrials failed to halt pool operations in other quarters, public utilities again displaying marked strength. The closing was irregular. Sales approximated 800,000 shares.

NEW YORK, July 11.—Stock prices moved within narrow and irregular limits at the opening of today's market. Considerable profit-taking was again in evidence, particularly among the standard industrials and specialties. General Electric dropped a point and U. S. Steel common, Baldwin and Studebaker yielded fractionally.

A renewed demand for the public utility stocks checked the decline after the first few minutes of trading and the general list pointed upward again. American Water Works common advanced six points. West Penn. Power 4½, United Railway Investment preferred 2 and Montana Power, Davison Chemical and Pere Marquette moved up 1 to 2½. During the initial reaction, American Water Works 6 per cent preferred dropped two points, Northern Pacific 5% and Daniel Boone Mills 1, the last named touching a new 1924 low at 15.

Foreign exchanges opened firm.

Further irregularity developed before noon. Another wave of profit-taking in American Water Works common sent down that stock down five points from its early high. Several other public utilities mounted to new maximum prices for the year, including Consolidated Gas, Brooklyn Union Gas, North American preferred, and Montana Power. Standard industrials barely held their own but good buying was noted in American Linseed common and preferred, International Paper, U. S. Industrial Alcohol, Dupont and Union Tank Car. American Sumatra Tobacco common and preferred and Munsingwear fell back 1 to 3 points to new low prices for the year. Rails moved a point or so either way in reflection of the mixed nature in the June earnings report. Call money opened at 2 per cent.

Hot Weather Causes An Advance In Wheat; Corn Fluctuates

MARKETS AT A GLANCE

NEW YORK MARKETS

Stocks irregular; six rails at new 1924 highs.
Bonds uneven; Brazilian issues lower.
Foreign exchanges mixed; sterling strong; Brazilian milreis below 10 cents.
Cotton higher; bullish weekly statistics.

CHICAGO MARKETS

Wheat higher; bullish Canadian crop reports.
Corn firm; strong cash situation.
Cattle strong.
Hogs higher; very active.

CHICAGO, July 11.—Wheat scored an early advance in price today owing to continued dry hot weather over the Canadian northwest. According to a crop authority here, the probable yield in Canada has been reduced 30,000,000 bushels since July 1 and each day without general rain is curtailing Canadian crop several million bushels. Europeans were good buyers here and at Winnipeg. Chicago opening prices which ranged from ⅞ to 1⅛c higher, September 1.16 to 1.16¼ and Dec. 1.19 to 1.19¼, were followed by a moderate reaction and then by fresh upturns.

The close was unsettled ⅞@1c to 1⅜c net higher, Sept. 1.16⅝ and Dec. 1.19@1.19⅛ to 1.19⅜.

Hot weather favoring corn growth caused the new crop deliveries of corn but old crop months showed strength. After opening at ⅛c lower to ⅜c advance, the corn market fluctuated nervously within a range of one cent.

The close was firm at the same as yesterday's finish to 3⅜c higher, July 1.04¼ to 1.04½ and Sept. 98⅝.

Oats lacked support. Starting at ⅛c off to ¼c up, Sept. 44⅝ to 44¾, the market underwent a general sag.

In line with hog values, the provision market was firmer.

Large Blocks of Call Money at Low Rates Gives Impetus to Bonds; Uprising Depresses Brazilians

NEW YORK, July 11.—Contrasting price movements again marked the bond market in today's early trading. The appearance of large blocks of call money in the "outside" market available at lower rates than quote on the stock exchange was an impetus to the investment buying.

Foreign government, railroad and public utility issues attracted most of these orders as liberty bonds were neglected. Gains ranging from fractions to two points were recorded by Erie, Great Northern, Frisco, West Penn. Power, Swiss government and municipal issues.

Finland obligations. Uneasiness over the reported spread of the Sao Paulo insurrection, however, inspired further selling of Brazilian issues, which averaged losses of about a point. A drop of five points was recored on the first sale of Mexican 5's made this week.

DRIVING FINISHES FEATURE OPENING EVENTS AT RACELAND

Flowers of Love Wins The First Handicap; Parke Pilots Two Winners; Officials Pleased With Enthusiastic Opening

BY C. J. SAVAGE

RACELAND, KY., July 11—(Special to The Daily Times) Under an excellent ride at the hands of Jockey Jake Heupel, Flowers, of Love, J. O. and G. H. Keene's four-year-old daughter of Luke McLuke-Woodlane, won the Ashland Handicap, worth $2,000 added, the headline attraction of the opening day's programme at the new Raceland track Thursday. Only three accepted the issue in the main event, Bob Tail and Corinth being the other two, and they finished in this order.

The Ashland was over the distance of one and one-eighth miles and the winner was the most favored. She followed Bob Tail while the latter set the pace the greater part of the way, and after being blocked on the far turn moved up with a rush on the outside and demonstrated that she was pounds the best. Corinth was a trailer throughout and was never even a serious contender.

If there was any doubt as to the success of the Raceland venture it was removed Thursday when a crowd of over 10,000 turned out to witness the first real thoroughbred racing in this section. The gathering was as enthusiastic as it was large, and the enthusiasm was manifested from the first race on. When the first field of horses appeared on the oval to parade to the post, the vast crowd broke into cheers and it continued for several minutes.

Many of those present Thursday were sightseers who were not familiar with the thoroughbred sport, but they quickly caught on to it. That steady improvement will be shown there is no doubt and it will not be long forthcoming.

Of secondary importance to the state yesterday was the Olive Hill Purse, for two-year-olds. This fell to Hal Price Headley's Rural Route, a home-bred two-year-old daughter of Ultimus-Rustic Maid. Jockey Walter Taylor sent her through next the inner rail turning for home, and the ground that she saved won the day for her. Captain Hal, the 9 to 10 choice, landed in second place, with Reputation third.

Large delegations from Louisville, Lexington and Cincinnati helped swell the opening day's attendance. The transportation facilities were all that could be desired, especially in a motor way.

The most pleasing feature of the day's racing was the return to the saddle of Jockey Ivan Parke, leading race rider of America, who has been out of commission since undergoing an operation for appendicitis at Cincinnati a month ago. He came back with a victory on Barrage, his first mount, and duplicated this performance in the next event when he brought Repeater home in front. The little fellow showed no ill-effects of his long lay-off, and apparently, if anything, it did him good. Since January 1 he has won 119 races and is far in lead in the race for riding honors on this continent.

Mose Goldblatt achieved the honor of winning the first race run over the new race track when his Wawkulla, piloted by Jockey Louis Steinhart, captured the opening number. Then Mose made it a double in the next race with Barrage, with Parke in the saddle.

Steinhart's win on Wawkulla was the first of his career. He has been with the Goldblatt stable less than a year but from the start showed aptitude as a rider. He is a Canadian boy. He had four mounts at Latonia during the recent meeting, and his ability to leave the barrier with a rush endeared him to Goldblatt.

Repeater showed the way home in the third race over a small field, with Stump, Jr., second and Runquoi third. The fourth fell to Who Knows Me, with the lesser portions of the purse divided between Delectable and Naughty Nisba in the order named. In the final race Bobbie Shea came from last place to turn the trick over a fair field of selling platers.

General Manager J. O. Keene was highly elated over the opening and said that it undoubtedly augurs for the success of the racing here.

A thunderous round of applause from the 10,000 spectators that turned out for the opening of the new Raceland course greeted the horses when they appeared upon the course for the first race. The ovation continued for several minutes and gave evidence of the esteem in which thoroughbred racing is held in these parts.

H. C. Murnan, owner of the Four Oaks Stock Farm Stable, of which Robert McGarvey, is trainer, was a visitor from his home in Mobile, Ala.

Eleven carloads of turfites came over on a special train from Huntington, W. Va. This special train will be a daily feature between here and the West Virginia city.

A special train from Lexington, Ky., brought three hundred racing enthusiasts. Among them were Major Thomas G. McDowell, former mayor; Thomas G. Bradley, James T. Looney, Charles Reeder, Mayor Hogan Yancey, Hal Price Headley, John Carr, Phil T. Chinn, and A. B. Hancock. Most of the Lexingtonians returned home last night, but quite a few will remain over the week-end sport today and Saturday.

General Manager J. O. Keene announced today that on next Monday all ladies will be admitted free to Raceland as the guests of the management. Ladies' Days will be observed here throughout the meeting.

Two orchestras furnished music this afternoon, an innovation on Kentucky race tracks. There was continuous music throughout the afternoon.

W. E. Deegans, guiding spirit of the Huntington, W. Va., track, was a visitor at Raceland today. His meeting follows right in behind the close here.

Raceland is the only track in Kentucky that is policed by the Pinkerton Detective agency. Captain Rogers, one of the best known and most efficient race track detectives in America, is in charge of the policing arrangements here. His presence was manifested today as there was not a complaint of any kind.

FIRST HOOF BEATS AT RACELAND

(W. P. MINEGO)

"We were delighted with the size of the crowd and the wonderful interest shown in the different races and the liberal manner in which the bookies were patronized," General Manager J. O. Keene said to a Morning Sun reporter shortly after the first race had been run yesterday. "After the people become a little more educated about the kind of racing we will offer our patrons the crowds will grow correspondingly."

Mr. Keene, long identified with the racing game was the busiest man at Raceland yesterday.

The huge pavilion was almost filled and thousands stood in the betting sheds and in the paddock yesterday. There were 20 ticket sellers on the job and the crowd was handled expeditiously. The parking space will be enlarged and gravelled so that it will be in fine shape despite any rains which might come.

"It is gratifying to me to see so many Portsmouth people here," Secretary Thomas B. Cromwell said yesterday afternoon. "We are looking for big patronage from Portsmouth, on, Ashland, Huntington and Charleston. Mr. Cromwell has been in the racing game for 25 years and knows every angle of it.

Frank B. Pratt, of Ironton, was a conspicuous figure at the track and was kept busy greeting old friends from Portsmouth. He tried his hand picking a winner, but met with little success.

Mose Goldblatt, famous Cincinnati turfman, was introduced to a number of Portsmouth people and expects to pay this city a visit shortly. Ivan Parke, celebrated jockey wears the Goldblatt colors and put over the first two winners at Raceland. These were the first mounts for Parke since he was operated upon six weeks ago for appendicitis.

Two of the busiest men at the track were S. A. Stewart, Sciotoville owner, and Tod Cropper of this city. They found the first day a profitable one.

Six extra men were employed on the Ironton bridge to handle the throngs which passed over it and there was no congestion at any time. The bridge collectors strutted their plunder, appearing in the cutest new white coats.

The Western Union has a well equipped office in the big pavilion and it is in charge of L. A. Lentz, of Cincinnati. Three operators are at their keys.

A dozen female ushers escorted the women to their seats in the pavilion, not a bet being overlooked that would add to the comfort of the patrons.

C. J. Savage, Sun and Times correspondent was an extremely busy chap. He knows all the jockeys, owners and has the pedigree of every horse at the track.

Two bands furnished the music and played everything from "Darling, I Am Growing Old" to "There'll Be a Hot Time in the Old Town Tonight."

Leroy Compton, of the Compton Engraving company, of Portsmouth and Huntington was at the track and secured some fine pictures of the opening races.

The Feature Film company, of New York had four men at the track getting snap shots for their new serial "Full Blood."

There was tremendous interest in every race and every one was a real "hoss" race, several horses winning by the proverbial nose.

A modest, unassuming little chap is Ivan Parke, who is a big favorite at Latonia and Churchill Downs. The Morning Sun reporter enjoyed quite a chat with Ivan. "I want to see this plant go over, as the promoters deserve a lot of credit for their efforts to give this section some real horse racing," Parke said. He still looks a little thin, but is recovering rapidly from the surgical operation to which he recently submitted. He was a big favorite with the crowd and received much applause on each of his appearances at the barrier.

The track was unusually fast, and the jumpers cut up some high capers on it before they were sent away.

There are over 400 horses quartered at Raceland, many of them ranking with the fastest jumpers on American tracks.

C. H. Berryman, president; Ben Williamson, vice president; J. O. Keene, general manager; Thomas B. Cromwell, secretary and John S. Barbee, treasurer were all on hand and were congratulated on all sides on the completeness of the track. It is undeniably one of the finest racing plans in America.

Arrangements are being made to handle a crowd of 25,000 on Saturday, July 19, when the Raceland Derby will be run with Black Gold the favorite. Three special trains are to be run from Huntington and Charleston and two from Lexington.

Mayor Charles Jones and Police Chief Ross Blackwell, of Ironton, were conspicuous in the throng and were kept busy renewing acquaintances with their many Portsmouth friends.

A number of motorists from Portsmouth crossed the river at Haverhill and cut off much mileage by passing up Russell. A number also motored up on the Kentucky side from Fullerton to Raceland.

Yes, Same Old Story, Fair Suzanne Quits As Possible Defeat Looms

PARIS, July 11—(By The A. P.)—The long awaited duel between Helen Wills, the American women's lawn tennis champion, and the great Suzanne Langlen will not materialize this year, as Suzanne is definitely out of the Olympic tennis.

Such is the information wired by Mlle. Lenglen in reply to a query from the leading French sporting paper, L'AUTO, which succeeded in discovering her in retreat in the little village of Pourville, on the shores of Normandy, some kilometres from Deauville, where she went directly from London after her default in the Wimbledon tournament.

The message, dated yesterday, said, "Doctors forbid my playing in the Olympic games. Deeply regret. Lenglen."

Finland Stars Score Many Points

PARIS, July 11—(By the A. P.)—Finland's two greatest runners, Paavo Nurmi and Willie Ritola, have between them won 45 points for their country during the first five days of the Olympic track and field events. Their joint total is less than two points below that amassed by the entire field of British athletes who have put their county in third place with 46 1-2.

Ritola contributed 25 points to Finland's total of 103 and Nurmi has won 20, ten for his victory in the 1,500 metre run and a like number for leading the field in the 5,000 metres. Five of Ritola's points came when he ran second to Nurmi in the latter event. The other twenty were due to his triumphs in the 10,000 metre run and 3,000 metre steeplechase.

Jackson Scholz, of the New York A. C., is America's leading point winner thus far. He has 15 to his credit, representing first place in the 200 metre dash and second in the 100 metres.

Uncle Sam Is Showing Clean Pair Of Heels To Olympic Competitors

PARIS, July 11 — (By the A. P.)—The United States continues to increase its point total over Finland in the Olympic track and field championships. Outclassing the field in the hammer throw and pole vault yesterday, the Yankee athletes pushed their mark to 176 1-2 while the men from the little northern European Republic, despite the double victory of Paavo Nurmi in the 1,500 and 5,000 metre runs have but 103.

The other point standings are: Great Britain 46 1-2; Sweden 23 1-2; France 13 1-2; Switzerland 10; Hungary 7 1-2; South Africa 5; Norway 4; New Zealand 4; Denmark 3 and Canada 2. Canada was added to the list by virtue of winning fifth place in the pole vault.

Only one event, the four hundred metre race, will be decided today.

Selby League

Selco park was the scene of a closely contested diamond struggle Thursday afternoon when the Pattern Makers won out in a 3 to 2 count that required extra innings to decide. Two timely hits produced the winning tally. Adkins singled and was perched safely on first when Harold Stewart banged a two-base blow to middle that allowed Adkins to romp across the rubber. The drive took a bad bound and the bingle which would have been only a single allowed Stewart to reach second.

Mound duty for the P. M. nine was taken care of by Ed. Myer with Adkins behind the plate. Schuler pitched good ball for the Finishers but with the breaks against him had to be content with the loser's share of the spoils. Cummins received his slants.

To Defend Title

CHICAGO, July 11.—Ed. "Strangler" Lewis will defend his heavyweight wrestling championship title here tonight against Mike Romano, Italian. It is to be best two out of three.

COLUMBUS, July 11.—Jack Reynolds, Cedar Rapids, Iowa, won back his title as welterweight wrestling champion, when he defeated Ray Carpenter, of Lancaster.

McDermott To Play Coal Grove Team

McDermott's representative nine will journey from their home diamond Sunday to meet the Red Rangers on the Coal Grove field. McDermott will take a strong lineup up the river to do battle with the Rangers, who have a well balanced fighting aggregation. Brannan or Babe Thompson will hurl for the McDermott lads, who are counting on turning in a victory over the Lawrence county delegation. A goodly number of McDermott fans are to accompany the village team.

New Record For Columbus Track

COLUMBUS, O., July 11.—The fastest three heat race of the 1924 season was hung up at the Columbus Driving Park yesterday by Hal Mahone. The average time for the three heats was 2:02 1-3.

In placing a record on the track Hal Mahone also captured the $3,000 purse as winner of the race.

The first race, won by Kid Hal, had to go four heats, and it took three heats to decide every other race on the card.

Do Tell Siki Will Enter Ring Tonight

BELLAIRE, O., July 1.—Battling Siki, the Senegalese boxer and Ray Bennett, contender for the negro heavyweight championship, meet her tonight in a 12 round bout. Mickey Flynn of Canton and Pierre Nicholas, French welterweight, meet in the eight-round semi-final.

Fights and Fighters

GREAT NECK, N. Y.—Georges Carpentier began active training today for his championship bout with Gene Tunney at the Polo grounds, July 24.

ALBANY, N. Y.—Bud Chrisiano of Philadelphia and Joe Jawson of Milwaukee, Junior lightweights, fought 12 slashing rounds to a draw last night.

So This Is the French Nag

NEW YORK, July 11—Epinard, Pierre Wertheimer's premier French race horse, was to tread on American soil for the first time when the Berengaria docked at 9 o'clock this morning after passing the night aboard the vessel at Quarantine. He was to be taken by van to Belmont Park, where he will rest a few days before going to Saratoga Springs. At the Spa he will train for his first race, a six furlong dash at Belmont Park on Labor Day.

Original plans called for Epinard to go immediately to Saratoga, but a radiogram from Eugene Leigh, his trainer, directed that he be permitted to recuperate from his ocean voyage at Belmont Park. While there Epinard will occupy the quarters in which Papyrus and Bar Gold were housed during the former's training for the match race with Zev.

AMERICAN

DIVIDE DOUBLE HEADER

WASHINGTON, July 11.—Washington lost clear claim to the American League leadership yesterday for the first time since it attained that position, June 24, by losing the first game of a double header to Detroit, 12 to 10, after 13 innings. The defeat sent the Senators into a first place tie with New York which won two games from Chicago. More than four hours were needed for the first game and the second went only five innings to a 3 to 3 score because of darkness.

Addie Ade's Adventures

THE MINUTE-A-DAY SERIAL

CHAPTER 10—"Didn't notice you stirring around much down at the barn this afternoon, Dad," remarked Addie at supper, with a knowing look at her mother.

"Well, I got feelin' kind of tired," said Dad, "an' I thought I'd just sit down awhile and think over some ideas of mine. I was figurin'—"

"I wonder what you were figuring on when I come down there?" interrupted Addie as she passed Dad his second plate of ham and fried potatoes. "You were leaning back against the wall with your eyes shut and your mouth open."

"Why, Dad, you must have been asleep!" said Ma, with mock surprise.

"No such thing!" Dad objected, looking a little sheepish, however, "might have dozed off for a minute or two, but most of the time I was thinkin' and thinkin' an' if you don't believe it, listen here!

"You know what I'm goin' to do? I was decidin' that, seein' we use the automobile to do all our ridin' around in, I'm goin' to get down that surrey of mine I got last Spring a year ago, paint her up and sell her. I'll put an ad in the Vehicles column of the paper, an' I'll find somebody to buy her sure as shootin'.

"So you folks think I was sleepin' all afternoon?" he concluded triumphantly. "Addie, could you let me have another piece of that ham?"

SECRET WAY TO SLENDERNESS REVEALED

SAN-GRI-NA, a new French discovery for the reduction of excess fat, is now creating a sensation in New York and Paris—it seems that at last something real has been found to relieve fat people. It is a combination of anti-fat ingredients which help nature in dissolving more rapidly waste tissues, the accumulation of which accounts for excess fat, according to the theory of a famous French scientist. SAN-GRI-NA has not been advertised nor offered to the general public, but has been used in private practice in Europe, where large amounts have been paid for it. Since it has been introduced in America, the demand has been so tremendous that every good drug store is supplied with it at a price within the reach of all. It is the easiest, safest and quickest way to reduce. SAN-GRI-NA is put up in small tasteless tablets, and all you need to do is to take two before meals. GUARANTEED ABSOLUTELY HARMLESS. No; only will it remove excess fat, but it acts as a general tonic on the entire system and relieves that dull, tired feeling so well known to fat people. It has been found a great help in cases of high blood pressure and general disorders due to obesity.

One preached an inspiring sermon, while the other, who could speak English, interpreted it. Mrs. White, who is president of the society, was unanimously elected president for the coming year. Mrs. T. B. Scott, wife of the pastor of the Allen Chapel, was also a delegate to th convention.

MAKES WAR ON KEARNS

ALL is not well with the Kearns congressional machine. It is not rolling over the Sixth district with its accustomed smoothness and there are signs of panic among the henchmen who are manipulating it. In almost every county there are monkey wrench throwers, bent upon the destruction of the Kearns outfit, and the feeling is growing that Kearns is at last due for a trouncing. It is now said that the only thing that will save Kearns is success of the efforts of the Scioto county ham-stringers brigade. This outfit, composed mostly of old gang leaders, has always been on hand to knife a Scioto county candidate and this year they are responding to the Kearns cry for help, with redoubled energy. That Scioto county is entitled to the candidate, cuts no figure with these local bosses. They know they can use Kearns and they are afraid a local man would grow too big for them.

Over in Highland county, The News-Herald, oldest and strongest Republican paper in the county, continues hammering Kearns. In its last issue, The News-Herald says of our congressman and his ambition to succeed himself:

"Which are you for, Coolidge or Kearns? You can not consistently be for both of them. There was not another member of congress, not even a Democrat, who on all of the important recommendations of the President more consistently opposed the President than Mr. Kearns. Mr. Coolidge stands for economy of the tax payer and making the burden of taxation as light as possible. Mr. Kearns is like most practical politicians. He apparently loves to spend the people's money. By so doing he curries favor with some class or clique. These will not forget the favors he has extended them and he expects and thinks that the people generally will. And we regret to say that too often he is right. But we have a feeling that he is wrong this time. We hope that the people have at last decided to have some say in selecting their candidates, at least insofar as present members of congress are concerned.

"But from no standpoint has Kearns shown any accomplishments or ability that justify his being returned to congress. He has been there ten years and has not as much standing and prestige now as some congressmen who are serving their first term. He is a figurehead, a straw man. He has introduced and succeeded in having passed some private pension bills, sent out a lot of free garden seeds, voted to spend the money of the people at every opportunity and voted against all of the legislation recommended by President Coolidge. He is too lazy to work, except to keep himself in congress and if he stays in congress for the rest of his life, and lives a long time, he will not be anything but a shrewd, scheming, slick politician, doing the dictates of other machine politicians.

"We can see why people who are opposed to the policies of President Coolidge would want Kearns elected, but we can not imagine how anyone who is for Coolidge could be for Kearns. If you want to uphold the hands of the President, vote for E. O. McCowen, of Scioto county for the Republican nomination for congress."

Readers of The Times were given a service on the Democratic National convention, that was not surpassed by any other newspaper in the land, no matter how big it was. Three leased wires brought the news to Portsmouth, and brought it quickly. Two Associated Press wires and one United Press wire, the latter operating on the printer machines, carried the convention to the readers of the Portsmouth papers, and both of these great news associations, gave unexcelled service.

Officer Pepgen Bonzo, recent recruit of the Coolidge-Hell An' Maria forces, has declined to comment upon the nomination of John W. Davis by his erstwhile party. An unofficial spokesman, however, said that Mr. Bonzo was somewhat at sea as to the identity of Mr. Davis; that he had consulted his various albums and so far had been unable to find Mr. Davis' picture anywhere among the really great (including Mr. Bonzo, himself) who had given testimonials, with their pictures, to either Pepgen or its rivals in popular esteem, Peruna and Tanlac.

The action of Hon. Adam Frick in asking for the tarring or oiling of the West Side road will meet with the hearty approval of the motoring public of Portsmouth but it is very doubtful that the appeal will bear fruit. Governor Donahey and his advisors seem to regard Scioto county as a sort of No Man's Land, and in no way have they given evidence of knowledge that this community is on the Ohio map, politically or otherwise. That is except about election time. Then we presume Governor Vic will be reaching out for the liberal share of votes he has been in the habit of gathering down here. Only this time he may not need quite so large a basket in which to carry home Scioto county votes.

The condition of the paving from the railway crossing near the hospital to the north city limits, is a disgrace to the city and a reflection upon the officials in charge of affairs. Sewer contractors have left unsightly piles of dirt upon the roadway and alongside it; either they or other contractors have torn up the paving in various places and then replaced the brick in such manner that nasty depressions have been left in the paving. Altogether it is a situation that no well ordered city administration should or would tolerate. That is, if they are not wholly occupied in salary grab raids on the city treasury.

NEW YORK DAY-BY-DAY

BY O. O. McINTYRE

NEW YORK, July 11—Thoughts while strolling around New York: Girls with little tight hats. Slinky frocks. Aswish with silk. A good modiste can almost sanctify a saint. Solomon couldn't tell the paste jewels from the real.

A Greek meets a Greek. A new fruit stand in the making. That famous wit—Oliver Herford. The life of the Players. Crowds studying caskets in a show window. The clomp of a million feet. Bachelor club windows filled with expressionless faces.

Summer madness. Women with colored feather neckpieces. There's Big Bill Edwards. And his triple deck chin. Wish I could get fat. Impertinent rubber wagon barkers. Haranguing timid sight-seers. The old site of the Metropole—where the gambler Rosenthal was killed.

The Cocee House Club—the noonday rendezvous of the literati. And Vanity Fair dilletantes. Wonder what a turtle thinks about? Every musical show has a midget. A dollar pants sale. Pale faces ravaged by dissipation.

The whirl about the public library. Every stratum of life—the plutocrat and pander. And always the old women with their wilted flowers. Two taxis smash together. The drivers fight. And policemen rush up. A great old corner—a magic cauldron boiling with activity.

The ceaseless human tide flowing down the Grand aCntral ramp. And around the corner is Lexington avenue the cheap hotel district. Butcher shops. Drugstore windows filled with trusses and crutches. Four story flats. Taffy colored bedroom sets. And walk up clothing shops.

Chinese laundrymen slip-slapping along with huge bundles. Strauge playbills and placards. Yiddish, Hungarian and German. Gypsy musicians playing in courtyards. Donkey rides for five cents. And lemonade two cents a glass.

It is interesting to watch the changing character of the crowds on Fifth Avenue around sundown. When all the homegoers have passed, the real avenue comes out to stroll. Almost any block has its handful of millionaires—names that boom first pages. There is a sort of restricted area where they walk. It begins at the Plaza fountain and ends at Forty-Second street. Forty-Second seems to be a social dead-line.

And visitors who expect to see the real New York in the dining-room of the gilded hotels are usually out of luck. Most of the patrons are like themselves, visitors. One of the most New Yorkish crowds I have seen in many moons was in a tea room in West 51st street that serves a $1.50 dinner. Among those I saw there were Irving Berlin, Brooks John, Edgar Selwyn, Elsie Janis and her mother, James Montgomery Flagg, Gilbert Miller, Condo Nast, Cornelius Vanderbilt Whitney and the Six Morgan dancers.

Finding the haunt of the New Yorker is like trying to find vice in Chinatown. The feel of dark crime hangs over the place because of its dinky, badly lighted streets, but there is less crime in Chinatown than any other given area in New York. Opium dens supposed to be filled with the waste of white womanhood are not there. Most opium parlors are on quiet streets in the fashionable west side. Chinatown wickedness consists mostly in sitting about playing fan tan for small stakes and sipping hot tea and near beer. It is natural for the Chinese to shush and tip-toe and this adds greatly to the illusion of vice and mystery.

The Bowery underworld is really a world of down and outers. They are not criminals—merely drifters who live only for the day. Murderers, garroters, Jack-the-Rippers and worse do not run in a pack. Neither does the lesser brood of pickpockets and petty thieves.

ME AND MINE—BY BRIGGS

A Bonmerang

A husband who had a great habit of teasing his wife, was out driving in the country with her when they met a farmer driving a span of mules. Just as they were about to pass the farmer's rig the mules turned their heads toward the automobile and brayed vociferously.

Turning to his wife the husband asked, "Relatives of yours, I suppose?"

"Yes," said his wife sweetly, "by marriage."

ABOUT THIS TIME O' YEAR

By F. Kenneth Kelley

There's somethin' 'bout this time o' year
Whenu it's so doggoned hot,
That makes me sort o' kinder wish
I's somewhere that I'm not.
I have no pep for makin' shoes,
Or fig'rin' costs or 'spences,
I want to roam the fields an' woods,
Get scratched on barb-wire fences.
I want t' sit at close o' day
An' watch the sunlight dimmin'.
I want t' tramp the country roads,
I want t' go a-swimmin'.
The rich can have their swell resort,
Expensive summer home;
Just set me down in God's outdoors
An' let me dream an' roam.
